NOTICE.—Many hymns and tunes in this collection, as well as the arrangements and adaptations of music, are introduced "by permission," either purchased or given; and, therefore, cannot be used without the consent of the authors or owners of the Copyrights.

PREFACE.

THE design of those concerned in the preparation of the BAPTIST HYMNAL, has been to furnish the churches a book which shall aid in the worship of God, and so make the service of His house more attractive and delightful. They have sought both in the selection of Hymns, and in the choice and adaptation of music, to secure to God's people the best possible expression of the praises, pleadings, and aspirations of their hearts.

By restricting the number of hymns to those which are believed to be all that are necessary, space has been found for a most liberal provision in music. A definite plan has controlled the selection, viz:

1. Wherever the book is opened, a familiar tune is provided, if possible, for every hymn before the eye, preferably a tune already wedded to the words. The book thus becomes at once and in every part available.

2. As advancing tastes desire richer effects in harmony, on the same or opposite page with most hymns is afforded the alternative of a less familiar tune of the highest musical worth. The melodies of these more elaborate compositions may be sung by the congregation in unison, harmony being supplied by choir or organ.

3. As it is impossible to supply certain hymns of irregular measure with a choice of tunes, they are attended simply by the music, old or new, to which their established or growing popularity is largely due.

4. In the few instances where for regular meters but one tune was found practicable, the choice has been given to a familiar one, except in a minimum of cases and for controlling reasons.

All sources have been laid under contribution for the music. The animated Sacred Songs of Lowry, Bliss, and others; Psalm-tunes hallowed by use for more than a generation; the familiar Church Psalmody of Mason, Bradbury, Kingsley, and Woodbury; the stately Ancient Chorals of Europe, and the free melodies and rich harmonies from the school of church music represented in England by Dykes and Barnby; on the Continent by Gounod and Hiller, and in America by Cutler and Cornell; all will be found here represented.

The especial features of the Hymnal are therefore :

1. A collection of hymns shown by experience to be useful. 2. A larger provision of popular melodies than is usual in books of this character. 3. A choice, subject to few exceptions, between tunes generally known and newer or more elaborate melodies.

With this brief preface the book is sent forth with the earnest prayer that it may prove a blessing to the churches and the world. To God be the glory of any success it may achieve.

PUBLISHER'S NOTE.

Two years ago the Publication Society resolved to publish another Hymn Book, and appointed a Committee, consisting of A. J. Rowland, D. D., P. S. Henson, D. D., and Rev. L. P. Hornberger, to attend to its compilation. Under instructions from the Board, this Committee, in connection with the Secretary of the Society, B. Griffith, D. D., invited H. M. King, D. D., of Boston, Mass., H. H. Tucker, D. D., of Atlanta, Ga., J. A. Smith, D. D., of Chicago, Ill., E. G. Taylor, D. D., of Providence, R. I., Rev. H. M. Richardson, of Maryville, Mo., Samuel Graves, D. D., of Grand Rapids, Mich., T. T. Eaton, D. D., of Petersburg, Va., Basil Manly, D. D., of Louisville, Ky., E. T. Winkler, D. D., of Marion, Ala., Rev. T. S. Griffith, of Holmdel, N. J., Daniel Reed, D. D., of Bloomington, Ill., T. H. Pritchard, D. D., of Wake Forest, N. C., and Wayland Hoyt, D. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y., to become a Consulting Committee, and to furnish lists of Hymns necessary in their judgment for purposes of worship. The Hymns thus sent were carefully considered by the Committee, and wherever five or more of those sending them concurred, were adopted for publication. The hymns were then placed in the hands of W. H. Doane, Mus. Doc., and E. H. Johnson, D. D., Musical Editors, who, during the process of the work, were in frequent consultation with A. J. Rowland, D. D., Chairman of the Society's Committee. On the completion of their labors, a Proof of the entire book was taken and sent to the Consulting Committee and others, for criticisms and suggestions.

It will thus be seen that the BAPTIST HYMNAL is the result of long and painstaking toil, and that it embodies the choices and tastes of a large number of our well-known workers. The Publication Society trusts that the book will prove acceptable to the churches in all parts of the country, and a real addition to the Service of Praise. Its officers and managers desire to express their gratitude to the members of the Consulting Committee, to the Hymnal Committee of the Board, to E. H. Johnson, D. D., for very important and uncompensated labor, and especially to Dr. W. H. Doane for his invaluable and gratuitous service as Musical Editor-in-Chief.

Acknowledgments are also due and are hereby made to Messrs. Biglow & Main, Mr. George Kingsley, Dr. Robert Lowry, Dr. J. Ireland Tucker, W. W. Huntington, Esq., Messrs. E. and J. B. Young, T. E. Perkins, and others, for permission to use valuable copyright music.

B. GRIFFITH, SECRETARY.

CERTIFICATE.

The Undersigned, having been requested by the Officers of the AMERICAN BAPTIST PUBLICATION SOCIETY to examine the Proof sheets of the "Baptist Hymnal," for the compilation of which most of us sent lists of Hymns, and to suggest such emendations as might be thought by us expedient to make the Book more acceptable and useful, hereby certify that we have carefully performed the duties assigned us, and unite in heartily commending the Hymnal to the Churches. The list of hymns comprises all that are really needful for public worship; the adaptation of tunes and hymns by the Musical Editors is all that could be wished; and the provision of so much variety, especially in the music, fits the book to the varied culture and tastes of all grades of worshippers.

We earnestly hope that this new and most excellent aid to worship will have the widest possible circulation and use.

BAPTIST HYMNAL.

WORSHIP.

LYONS. 108, 118.

F. J. HAYDN. 1732-1809.

1. O worship the King, all glorious a-bove, And gratefully sing his wond-er-ful love,

Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of days, Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.

SIR ROBERT GRANT. 1830.

- 1 O worship the King, all glorious above,
And gratefully sing his wonderful love,
Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of days,
Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.
- 2 Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.
- 3 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail:
Thy mercies how tender, how firm to the end,
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend!

CHARLES WESLEY. 1745.

- 1 Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim,
And publish abroad his wonderful name;
The name all-victorious of Jesus extol;
His kingdom is glorious, and rules over all.
- 2 Then let us adore, and give him his right,
All glory and power and wisdom and might,
All honor and blessing, with angels above,
And thanks never ceasing, for infinite love.

WORSHIP.

OLD HUNDRED. L. M.

LOUIS BOURGEOIS. 1541—.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow ;
Praise him, all creatures here below ;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host ;
Praise Father, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

- 1 Ye nations round the earth, rejoice
Before the Lord, your sovereign King,
Serve him with cheerful heart and voice,
With all your tongues his glory sing.
- 2 The Lord is God; 'tis he alone
Doth life and breath and being give;
We are his work, and not our own;
The sheep that on his pastures live.
- 3 Enter his gates with songs of joy,
With praises to his courts repair,
And make it your divine employ
To pay your thanks and honors there.
- 4 The Lord is good; the Lord is kind;
Great is his grace, his mercy sure;
And the whole race of man shall find
His truth from age to age endure.

TATE AND BRADY. 1696.

- 1 Be thou, O God, exalted high;
And as thy glory fills the sky,
So let it be on earth displayed,
Till thou art here, as there, obeyed.
- 2 O God, my heart is fixed; 'tis bent
Its thankful tribute to present;
And, with my heart, my voice I'll raise
To thee, my God, in songs of praise.
- 3 Thy praises, Lord, I will resound
To all the listening nations round;
Thy mercy highest heaven transcends;
Thy truth beyond the clouds extends.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719. Alt. by J. WESLEV. 1741.

- 1 Before Jehovah's awful throne,
Ye nations, bow with sacred joy:
Know that the Lord is God alone;
He can create, and he destroy.
- 2 We are his people, we his care,
Our souls, and all our mortal frame:
What lasting honors shall we rear,
Almighty Maker, to thy name?
- 3 We'll erowd thy gates with thankful songs,
High as the heavens our voices raise,
And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.
- 4 Wide as the world is thy command,
Vast as eternity thy love:
Firm as a rock thy truth shall stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

- 1 From all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise;
Let the Redeemer's name be sung,
Through every land, by every tongue.
- 2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord;
Eternal truth attends thy word:
Thy praises shall sound from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

1. Come, O my soul, in sa - cred lays Attempt thy great Cre - a - tor's praise: But O, what tongue can speak his fame? What verse can reach the lofty theme? What verse can reach the lofty theme?

THOMAS BLACKLOCK. 1754.

- 1 Come, O my soul, in sacred lays
Attempt thy great Creator's praise:
But O, what tongue can speak his fame?
What verse can reach the lofty theme?
- 2 Enthroned amid the radiant spheres,
He glory like a garment wears;
To form a robe of light divine,
Ten thousand suns around him shine.
- 3 In all our Maker's grand designs,
Almighty power, with wisdom, shines;
His works, thro' all this wondrous frame,
Declare the glory of his name.
- 4 Raised on devotion's lofty wing,
Do thou, my soul, his glories sing;
And let his praise employ thy tongue
Till listening worlds shall join the song.

NAHUM TATE. 1696.

- 1 With one consent, let all the earth
To God their cheerful voices raise;
Glad homage pay with awful mirth,
And sing before him songs of praise:
- 2 Convinced that he is God alone,
From whom both we and all proceed;
We, whom he chooses for his own,
The flock that he vouchsafes to feed.
- 3 O enter, then, his temple gate,
Thence to his courts devoutly press,
And still your grateful hymns repeat,
And still his name with praises bless.
- 4 For he's the Lord, supremely good;
His mercy is forever sure;
His truth, which always firmly stood,
To endless ages shall endure.

1. Praise, Lord for thee in Zi - on waits; Prayer shall be-siege thy tem - ple gates;

HENRY FRANCIS LYTE. 1834.

1 Praise, Lord, for thee in Zion waits;
Prayer shall besiege thy temple gates;
All flesh shall to thy throne repair,
And find through Christ salvation there.

2 How blest thy saints! how safely led!
How surely kept! how richly fed!
Saviour of all in earth and sea,
How happy they who rest in thee.

3 The year is with thy goodness crowned;
Thy clouds drop wealth the world around;
Through thee the deserts laugh and sing,
And nature smiles and owns her King.

4 Lord, on our souls thy Spirit pour;
The moral waste within restore;
O let thy love our spring-tide be,
And make us all bear fruit to thee.

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

1 My God, my King, thy various praise
Shall fill the remnant of my days;
Thy grace employ my humble tongue,
Till death and glory raise the song.

2 The wings of every hour shall bear
Some thankful tribute to thine ear;
And every setting sun shall see
New works of duty done for thee.

3 Let distant times and nations raise
The long succession of thy praise;
And unborn ages make my song
The joy and triumph of their tongue.

4 But who can speak thy wondrous deeds?
Thy greatness all our thoughts exceeds:
Vast and unsearchable thy ways!
Vast and immortal be thy praise!

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

1 Far from my thoughts, vain world, begone;
Let my religious hours alone;
Fain would my eyes my Saviour see;
I wait a visit, Lord, from thee.

2 O warm my heart with holy fire,
And kindle there a pure desire;
Come, sacred Spirit, from above,
And fill my soul with heavenly love.

3 Blest Saviour, what delicious fare!
How sweet thy entertainments are!
Ne'er did the angels taste above
Redeeming grace and dying love.

4 Hail, great Immanuel, all divine!
In thee thy Father's glories shine;
Thy glorious name shall be adored,
And every tongue confess thee Lord.

12

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

1 Sweet is the work, my God, my King,
To praise thy name, give thanks, and sing;
To show thy love by morning light,
And talk of all thy truth at night.

2 My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
And bless his works and bless his word;
Thy works of grace, how bright they shine!
How deep thy counsels, how divine!

3 But I shall share a glorious part,
When grace hath well refined my heart,
And fresh supplies of joy are shed
Like holy oil, to cheer my head.

4 Then shall I see and hear and know
All I desired or wished below;
And every power find sweet employ
In that eternal world of joy.

13 HELEN MARIA WILLIAMS. 1786.

- 1 While thee I seek, protecting Power,
Be my vain wishes stilled ;
And may this consecrated hour
With better hopes be filled.
Thy love the power of thought bestowed ;
To thee my thoughts would soar ;
Thy mercy o'er my life has flowed ;
That mercy I adore.
- 2 In each event of life, how clear
Thy ruling hand I see !
Each blessing to my soul more dear
Because conferred by thee.
In every joy that crowns my days,
In every pain I bear,
My heart shall find delight in praise,
Or seek relief in prayer.
- 3 When gladness wings my favored hour,
Thy love my thoughts shall fill ;
Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
My soul shall meet thy will.
My lifted eye, without a tear,
The gathering storm shall see ;
My steadfast heart shall know no fear ;
That heart shall rest on thee.

14 OTTIWELL HEGINBOTHAM. 1794.

- 1 Father of mercies ! God of Love !
My Father and my God !
I'll sing the honors of thy name,
And spread thy praise abroad.
Thou boundless Source of every good,
My best desires fulfill ;
O help me to adore thy grace,
And mark thy sovereign will.
- 2 In all thy mercies may my soul
Thy bounteous goodness see ;
Nor let the gifts thy hand imparts
Estrange my heart from thee.
In every changing scene of life,
Whate'er that scene may be,
Give me a meek and humble mind,
A mind at peace with thee.
- 3 Through every period of my life,
Each bright, each clouded scene,
Give me a meek and humble mind,
Still equal and serene.
Then I may close my eyes in death,
Free from distracting care ;
For death is life, and labor rest,
If thou art with me there.

1 Praise, my soul, the King of heaven
To his feet thy tribute bring;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Evermore his praises sing;
Hallelujah!
Praise the everlasting King.

2 Praise him for his grace and favor
To our fathers in distress;
Praise him still the same as ever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless;
Hallelujah!
Glorious in his faithfulness.

3 Father-like, he tends and spares us,
Well our feeble frame he knows;
In his hands he gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes;
Hallelujah!
Praise Jehovah, God of grace.

20 ROBERT HAWKER. 1774

1 Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing;
Fill our hearts with joy and peace;
Let us each, thy love possessing,
Triumph in redeeming grace:
O, refresh us,
Traveling through this wilderness.

2 Thanks we give, and adoration,
For thy gospel's joyful sound;
May the fruits of thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound;
May thy presence
With us evermore be found.

3 Then, whene'er the signal's given
Us from earth to call away, flame, or nev-er Can my soul be warmed to praise.

2 Praise, my soul, the God that sought thee,
Wretched wanderer, far astray;
Found thee lost, and kindly brought thee
From the paths of death away;
Praise, with love's devoutest feeling,
Him who saw thy guilt-born fear,
And, the light of hope revealing,
Bade the blood-stained cross appear.

FRANCIS S. KEY. 1779-1843.

1 Lord, with glowing heart I'd praise thee
For the bliss thy love bestows;
For the pardoning grace that saves me,
And the peace that from it flows;
Help, O God, my weak endeavor;
This dull soul to rapture raise;
Thou must light the flame, or never
Can my soul be warmed to praise.

3 Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling
Vainly would my lips express:
Low before thy footstool kneeling,
Deign thy suppliant's prayer to bless;
Let thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
Love's pure flame within me raise;
And, since words can never measure,
Let my life show forth thy praise.

JOHN FAWCETT. 1782.

1 Praise to thee, thou great Creator;
Praise be thine from every tongue;
Join, my soul, with every creature,
Join the universal song.

2 Father, source of all compassion,
Free, unbounded grace is thine;
Hail the God of our salvation;
Praise him for his love divine.

3 For ten thousand blessings given,
For the hope of future joy,
Sound his praise through earth and heaven,
Sound Jehovah's praise on high.

4 Joyfully on earth adore him.
Till in heaven our song we raise;
There, enraptured, fall before him,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

1 Praise the Lord! ye heavens, adore him,
Praise him, angels, in the height:
Sun and moon, rejoice before him,
Praise him, all ye stars of light.

2 Praise the Lord! for he hath spoken,
Worlds his mighty voice obeyed;
Laws, which never shall be broken,
For their guidance he hath made.

3 Praise the Lord! for he is glorious;
Never shall his promise fail;
God hath made his saints victorious,
Sin and death shall not prevail.

4 Praise the God of our salvation;

Heaven and earth, and all creation,
Laud and magnify his name!

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

1 Great God attend, while Zion sings
The joy that from thy presence springs:
To spend one day with thee on earth,
Exceeds a thousand days of mirth.

2 Might I enjoy the meanest place
Within thy house, O God of grace,
Not tents of ease, nor thrones of power,
Should tempt my feet to leave thy door.

3 God is our sun,—he makes our day;
God is our shield,—he guards our way
From all th' assaults of hell and sin,
From foes without and foes within.

4 All needful grace will God bestow,
And crown that grace with glory too;
He gives us all things, and withholds
No real good from upright souls.

5 O God, our King, whose sovereign sway
The glorious hosts of heaven obey,
Display thy grace, exert thy power,
Till all on earth thy name adore!

- 1 How pleasant, how divinely fair,
O Lord of hosts, thy dwellings are!
With long desire my spirit faints
To meet th' assemblies of thy saints.
- 2 My flesh would rest in thine abode;
My panting heart cries out for God;
My God, my King, why should I be
So far from all my joys and thee?
- 3 Blest are the men whose hearts are set
To find the way to Zion's gate;
God is their strength; and, through the road,
They lean upon their helper, God.

What rites, what honors shall he pay?
How spread his sovereign name abroad?

And gems and gold and garlands deck
The costly pomp of sacrifice?
- 3 Vain, sinful man! creation's Lord

Here dwells a God who heareth prayer.

1 O day of rest and gladness,
 O day of joy and light,
 O balm of care and sadness,
 Most beautiful, most bright;
 On thee, the high and lowly,
 Bending before the throne,
 Sing Holy, Holy, Holy,
 To the Great Three in One.

2 On thee, at the creation,
 The light first had its birth;
 On thee, for our salvation,
 Christ rose from depths of earth;
 On thee our Lord victorious
 The Spirit sent from heaven:
 And thus on thee most glorious
 A triple light was given.

3 To-day, on weary nations,

 With pure and radiant beams,

1 Awake, my soul, and with the sun

Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise

2 Wake and lift up thyself, my heart,

High praise to the eternal King.

3 Glory to thee who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me whilst I slept!
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,

4 Lord, I my vows to thee renew;
Disperse my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill.

ISAAC WATTS. 1709.

1 My God, how endless is thy love!
Thy gifts are every evening new;
And morning mercies from above
Gently distill like early dew.

2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night,
Great Guardian of my sleeping hours:
Thy sovereign word restores the light,
And quickens all my drowsy powers.

3 I yield my powers to thy command;
To thee I consecrate my days;
Perpetual blessings from thy hand
Demand perpetual songs of praise.

1. Once more, my soul, the ris - ing day Sa - lutes thy wak - ing eyes:

51 ISAAC WATTS. 1709.

- 1 Once more, my soul, the rising day
Salutes thy waking eyes;
Once more, my voice, thy tribute pay
To him that rules the skies.
- 2 Night unto night his name repeats,
The day renews the sound,
Wide as the heavens on which he sits
To turn the seasons round.
- 3 'Tis he supports my mortal frame;
My tongue shall speak his praise;
My sins would rouse his wrath to flame,
And yet his wrath delays.
- 4 Great God, let all my hours be thine,
While I enjoy the light;
Then shall my sun in smiles decline,
And bring a pleasant night.

52 ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

- 1 Lord, in the morning thou shalt hear
My voice ascending high;
To thee will I direct my prayer,
To thee lift up mine eye.
- 2 Thou art a God before whose sight
The wicked shall not stand;
Sinners shall ne'er be thy delight,
Nor dwell at thy right hand.
- 3 But to thy house will I resort,
To taste thy mercies there;
I will frequent thine holy court,
And worship in thy fear.
- 4 O may thy Spirit guide my feet
In ways of righteousness,
Make every path of duty straight
And plain before my face.

1 When, streaming from the eastern skies,
The morning light salutes mine eyes,
O Sun of righteousness Divine,
On me with beams of mercy shine;
Chase the dark clouds of guilt away,
And turn my darkness into day.

2 And when to heaven's all-glorious King
My morning sacrifice I bring,
And, mourning o'er my guilt and shame,
Ask mercy in my Saviour's name;
Then, Jesus, cleanse me with thy blood,
And be my advocate with God.

3 When each day's scenes and labors close,
And wearied nature seeks repose,
With pardoning mercy richly blest,
Guard me, my Saviour, while I rest;
And, as each morning sun shall rise,
O lead me onward to the skies!

My conflicts o'er, my labors done,

And from death's gloom my spirit raise,
To see thy face and sing thy praise.

1 Lord Jesus, bless us ere we go:
Thy word into our minds instill;
And make our lukewarm hearts to glow
With lowly love and fervent will.
REF.—Through life's long day and death's dark night,
O gentle Jesus! be our light.
2 The day is done, its hours have run;
And thou hast taken count of all,

The scanty triumphs grace hath won,
The broken vow, the frequent fall.
3 Grant us, dear Lord, from evil ways
True absolution and release;
And bless us, more than in past days,
With purity and inward peace.
4 Do more than pardon; give us joy,
Sweet fear, and sober liberty,
And loving hearts without alloy,
That only long to be like thee.

Thy light and truth, and guide us on-

Still let thy mercy, as of old, be near us,
And lead us safely to thy holy hill.

Safe may we rise, this earth's dark vale
forsaking,
Through all the long bright day to dwell with thee.

That with the world, myself, and thee,

When all is dark, may we behold thee nigh,

GRONINGEN. C. M.

B. TOURS. 1838.

1. Since all the vary - ing scenes of time God's watch - ful eye sur - veys,
O who so wise to choose our lot, Or to ap - point our ways?

JAMES HERVEY. 1745.

- 1 Since all the varying scenes of time
God's watchful eye surveys,
O who so wise to choose our lot,
Or to appoint our ways?
2 Good, when he gives, supremely good;
Nor less when he denies:
E'en crosses, from his sovereign hand,
Are blessings in disguise.
3 Why should we doubt a Father's love,
So constant and so kind?
To his unerring, gracious will
Be every wish resigned.

- 4 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.
5 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

81

WM. COWPER. 1779.

- 1 God moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.
2 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take;
The clouds ye so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
With blessing on your head.
3 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.

82

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 Keep silence, all created things,
And wait your Maker's nod;
My soul stands trembling while she sings,
The honors of her God.
2 Life, death, and hell, and worlds unknown,
Hang on his firm decree;
He sits on no precarious throne,
Nor borrows leave to be.
3 His providence unfolds a book,
In which his counsels shine;
Each opening leaf, and every stroke,
Fulfills some deep design.
4 In thy fair book of life and grace,
O may I find my name,
Recorded in some humble place,
Beneath my Lord, the Lamb.

1. Through all the chang-ing scenes of life, In trou-ble and in joy,
The prais-es of my God shall still My heart and tongue em-ploy.

TATE AND BRADY. 1696.

- 1 Through all the changing scenes of life,
In trouble and in joy,
The praises of my God shall still
My heart and tongue employ.
- 2 The hosts of God encamp around
The dwellings of the just;
Protection he affords to all
Who make his name their trust.
- 3 O make but trial of his love!
Experience will decide
How blest are they, and only they,
Who in his truth confide.
- 4 Fear him, ye saints, and you will then
Have nothing else to fear:
Make you his service your delight,
He'll make your wants his care.

- 3 How kind are thy compassions, Lord!
How slow thine anger moves!
But soon he sends his pardoning word,
To cheer the souls he loves.
- 4 Sweet is the memory of thy grace,
My God, my heavenly King;
Let age to age thy righteousness
In songs of glory sing.

ANNE STEELE. 1760.

- 1 Sweet is the memory of thy grace,
My God, my heavenly King;
Let age to age thy righteousness
In songs of glory sing.
- 2 God reigns on high, but ne'er confines
His goodness to the skies;
Through all the earth his bounty shines,
And every want supplies.

- 1 My God, my Father,—blissful name,—
O may I call thee mine!
May I with sweet assurance claim
A portion so divine!
- 2 This only can my fears control,
And bid my sorrows fly;
What harm can ever reach my soul,
Beneath my Father's eye?
- 3 Whate'er thy providence denies,
I calmly would resign;
For thou art good and just and wise;
O bend my will to thine!
- 4 Whate'er thy sacred will ordains,
O give me strength to bear!
And let me know my Father reigns,
And trust his tender care.

86

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 Now to the Lord a noble song!
Awake, my soul, awake, my tongue,
Hosanna to th' eternal name,
And all his boundless love proclaim.
- 2 See where it shines in Jesus' face,—
The brightest image of his grace;
God, in the person of his Son,
Has all his mightiest works outdone.
- 3 Grace! 'tis a sweet, a charming theme;
My thoughts rejoice at Jesus' name;
Ye angels, dwell upon the sound;
Ye heavens, reflect it to the ground.
- 4 O may I reach the happy place,
Where he unveils his lovely face,
His beauties there may I behold,
And sing his name to harps of gold.

87

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

- 1 Bless, O my soul, the living God;
Call home thy thoughts that rove abroad:
Let all the powers within me join
In work and worship so divine.
- 2 Bless, O my soul, the God of grace:
His favors claim thy highest praise;
Let not the wonders he hath wrought
Be lost in silence, and forgot.
- 3 'Tis he, my soul, that sent his Son
To die for crimes which thou hast done;
He owns the ransom, and forgives
The hourly follies of our lives.
- 4 Let every land his power confess;
Let all the earth adore his grace;
My heart and tongue with rapture join,
In work and worship so divine.

1 To God on high be thanks and praise
 For mercy ceasing never,
 Whereby no foe a hand can raise,
 Nor harm can reach us ever.
 With joy to him our hearts ascend,
 The source of peace that knows no end,
 A peace that none can sever.

2 The honors paid thy holy name
 To hear thou ever deignest!
 Then, God the Father, still the same
 Unshaken ever reignest.
 Unmeasured stands thy glorious might;
 Thy thoughts, thy deeds, outstrip the light,
 Our heaven thou, Lord, remainest.

JOSEPH ADDISON. 1712.

1 When all thy mercies, O my God,
 My rising soul surveys,
 Transported with the view, I'm lost

 2 Unnumbered comforts on my soul
 Thy tender care bestowed,
 Before my infant heart conceived
 From whom those comforts flowed.

3 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
 My daily thanks employ;
 Nor is the least a cheerful heart,
 That tastes those gifts with joy.
 4 Through every period of my life
 Thy goodness I'll pursue;
 And after death, in distant worlds,
 The glorious theme renew.

1. Raise your triumphant songs To an immortal tune;

Wide let the earth resound the deeds Celestial grace has done.

90

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

- 1 Raise your triumphant songs
To an immortal tune;
Wide let the earth resound the deeds
Celestial grace has done.
- 2 Sing how eternal love
Its chief Beloved chose,
And bade him raise our wretched race
From their abyss of woes.
- 3 Now, sinners, dry your tears,
Let hopeless sorrow cease;
Bow to the scepter of his love,
And take the offered peace.
- 4 Lord, we obey thy call;
We lay an humble claim
To the salvation thou hast brought,
And love and praise thy name.

91

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 Behold, what wondrous grace
The Father has bestowed
On sinners of a mortal race,
To call them sons of God!
- 2 Nor doth it yet appear
How great we must be made;
But when we see our Saviour here,
We shall be like our Head.
- 3 A hope so much divine
May trials well endure;
May purify our souls from sin,
As Christ, the Lord, is pure.
- 4 If in my Father's love
I share a filial part,
Send down thy Spirit like a dove,
To rest upon my heart.

93 PHILIP DODDRIDGE. 1740.

1 Grace! 'tis a charming sound,
 Harmonious to the ear;
 Heaven with the echo shall resound,

 2 Grace first contrived the way
 To save rebellious man;
 And all the steps that grace display
 Which drew the wondrous plan.

3 Grace led my roving feet
 To tread the heavenly road;
 And new supplies each hour I meet,
 While pressing on to God.
 4 Grace all the work shall crown,
 Through everlasting days:
 It lays in heaven the topmost stone,
 And well deserves the praise.

MARTIN LUTHER. 1521.
T. F. H. HEDGE. 1853.

1 A mighty fortress is our God,
A bulwark never failing:
Our Helper he, amid the flood
Of mortal ills prevailing.
For still our ancient foe
Doth seek to work us woe;
His craft and power are great,
And armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal.

2 Did we in our own strength confide,
Our striving would be losing;
Were not the right man on our side,
The man of God's own choosing.
Dost ask who that may be?
Christ Jesus, it is he;
Lord Sabaoth is his name,
From age to age the same,
And he must win the battle.

3 And though this world, with devils filled,
Should threaten to undo us;
We will not fear, for God hath willed
His truth to triumph through us.
The prince of darkness grim,—
We tremble not for him;
His rage we can endure,
For lo! his doom is sure,—
One little word shall fell him!

4 That word above all earthly powers—
No thanks to them—abideth;
The Spirit and the gifts are ours
Through him who with us sideth.
Let goods and kindred go,
This mortal life also:
The body they may kill:
God's truth abideth still,
His kingdom is forever.

H. W. BAKER. 1821-1877

1 Rejoice to-day with one accord,
Sing out with exultation;
Rejoice and praise our mighty Lord,
Whose arm hath brought salvation;
His works of love proclaim
The greatness of his name;
For he is God alone,
Who hath his mercy shown;
Let all his saints adore him.

2 When in distress to him we cried,
He heard our sad complaining;
O trust in him, whate'er betide,
His love is all sustaining;
Triumphant songs of praise
To him our hearts shall raise;
Now every voice shall say,
"O praise our God alway;"
Let all his saints adore him.

This heart would still re - fuse thee, But thou hast cho - sen me.

JOSEPH CONDER. 1789-1855.

1 'Tis not that I did choose thee,
For, Lord, that could not be;
This heart would still refuse thee,
But thou hast chosen me:

2 Thou from the sin that stained me
Washed me and set me free,
And to this end ordained me,
That I should live to thee.

3 'Twas sovereign mercy called me,
And taught my opening mind;
The world had else enthralled me,
To heavenly glories blind.

4 My heart owns none above thee;
For thy rich grace I thirst;
This knowing: if I love thee,
Thou must have loved me first.

And fall in fatal snares,
Since God, my guard and guide,
Defends me from my fears:
Those wakeful eyes That never sleep
Shall Israel keep When dangers rise.

3 Hast thou not given thy word
To save my soul from death?
And I can trust thee, Lord,
To keep my mortal breath;
I'll go and come, Nor fear to die.
Till from on high Thou call me home.

2 To thee we lift our joyful eyes,
To thee on wings of faith we rise;
Come thou, and let thy courts on earth
Ring out thy praise in holy mirth.

3 God of our strength from day to day,
Direct our thoughts and guide our way;
O may our hearts united be,
In sweet communion, Lord, with thee.

4 God of our strength, on thee we call;

Thy name we praise, thy love adore,

1 Sing, my soul, his wondrous love,
Who from yon bright throne above,
Ever watchful o'er our race,
Still to man extends his grace.

2 Heaven and earth by him were made,
All is by his scepter swayed;
What are we that he should show
So much love to us below!

Bought us with the Saviour's blood;
And, to make our safety sure,
Guides us by his Spirit pure.

4 Sing, my soul, adore his name;

Trust his love for all to come.

- 1 Hark, the glad sound! the Saviour comes,
 The Saviour promised long;
 Let every heart prepare a throne,

 In Satan's bondage held;

EDMUND H. SEARS. 1851.

1 It came upon the midnight clear,
 That glorious song of old,
 From angels bending near the earth
 To touch their harps of gold :
 "Peace to the earth, good-will to man,
 From heaven's all gracious King :"
 The earth in solemn stillness lay,
 To hear the angels sing.

2 Still through the cloven skies they come,
 With peaceful wings unfurled ;
 And still their heavenly music floats
 O'er all the weary world ;
 Above its sad and lowly plains
 They bend on hovering wing,
 And ever o'er its Babel sounds
 The blessed angels sing.

3 O ye, beneath life's crushing load,
 Whose forms are bending low,
 Who toil along the climbing way,
 With painful steps and slow,—
 Look up ; for glad and golden hours
 Come swiftly on the wing ;
 O rest beside the weary road,
 And hear the angels sing.

4 For, lo! the days are hastening on
 By prophet bards foretold,
 When with the ever-circling years
 Comes round the age of gold ;
 When peace shall over all the earth
 Its ancient splendors fling,
 And the whole world give back the scug
 Which now the angels sing.

1 In a lowly manger sleeping,
 Calm and still a babe we see,
 'Tis the Holy Child of promise,
 Light of all the world is he.

2 Holy angels sing his welcome
 In the realms of glory bright,

While the morning stars around him,
 Fall in soft and tender light.

3 Blessed Saviour, dear Redeemer,
 King of Judah, Prince of Peace,
 Rock of ages, star of nations,
 Thy dominion ne'er shall cease.

JAMES MONTGOMERY. 1822.

1 Hail to the Lord's Anointed,
Great David's greater Son!
Hail, in the time appointed,
His reign on earth begun!
He comes to break oppression,
To set the captive free,
To take away transgression,
And rule in equity.

2 He comes, with succor speedy,
To those who suffer wrong;
To help the poor and needy,
And bid the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls, condemned and dying,
Were precious in his sight.

3 He shall come down like showers
Upon the fruitful earth,
And love and hope, like flowers,
Spring in his path to birth;
Before him on the mountains
Shall peace, the herald, go,
And righteousness in fountains
From hill to valley flow.

4 For him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend,
His kingdom still increasing—
A kingdom without end;
The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove;
His name shall stand forever;
That name to us is Love.

Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall ;
Angels adore him, in slumber reclining,
Maker and Monarch and Saviour of all.

3 Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom, and offerings divine?
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?

1 Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid ;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation ;
Vainly with gifts would his favor secure ;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration ;
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

SIR EDWARD DENNY. 1839.

1 What grace, O Lord, and beauty shone
 Around thy steps below;
 What patient love was seen in all
 Thy life and death of woe!

2 For, ever on thy burdened heart
 A weight of sorrow hung;
 Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
 Escaped thy silent tongue.

3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
 Thy friends unfaithful prove;
 Unwearied in forgiveness still,
 Thy heart could only love.

4 O give us hearts to love like thee!
 Like thee, O Lord, to grieve
 Far more for others' sins than all
 The wrongs that we receive.

GEORGE W. DOANE. 1824

1 Thou art the Way,—to thee alone
 From sin and death we flee:
 And he who would the Father seek,
 Must seek him, Lord, by thee.

2 Thou art the Truth,—thy word alone
 True wisdom can impart;
 Thou only canst instruct the mind,
 And purify the heart.

3 Thou art the Life,—the rending tomb
 Proclaims thy conquering arm;
 And those who put their trust in thee,
 Nor death nor hell shall harm.

4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life;
 Grant us that way to know,
 That truth to keep, that life to win,
 Whose joys eternal flow.

 Dwell in that blissful sound!
 Its influence every fear disarms
 And spreads delight around.

2 Here pardon, life, and joy divine
 In rich profusion flow
 For guilty rebels, lost in sin,
 And doomed to endless woe.

3 The mighty Former of the skies
 Descends to our abode,
 While angels view with wondering eyes,

117

J. MONTGOMERY. 1825.

1 When, like a stranger on our sphere,
The lowly Jesus wandered here,
Where'er he went, affliction fled,
And sickness reared her fainting head.

2 The eye that rolled in irksome night,
Beheld his face—for God is light;
The opening ear, the loosened tongue,
His precepts heard, his praises sung.

3 With bounding steps the halt and lame,
To hail their great Deliverer came;
O'er the cold grave he bowed his head,
He spake the word, and raised the dead.

4 Through paths of loving kindness led,
Where Jesus triumphed we would tread;
To all, with willing hands dispense
The gifts of our benevolence.

O who like thee did ever go
So patient through a world of woe?

So meek, forgiving, godlike, high,
So glorious in humility?

Illuming all my way of woe:
And give me ever on the road

Such deference to thy Father's will,

1 When through the torn sail the wild tempest is streaming,
When o'er the dark wave the red lightning is gleaming,
Nor hope lends a ray the poor seaman to cherish,
We fly to our Maker:—“Save, Lord, or we perish!”
2 O Jesus, once tossed on the breast of the billow,
Aroused by the shriek of despair from thy pillow,

Now, seated in glory, the mariner cherish,
Who cries in his danger, “Help, Lord, or we perish!”

3 And, O, when the whirlwind of passion is raging,
When sin in our hearts, its wild warfare is waging,
Arise in thy strength, thy redeemed to cherish,
Rebuke the destroyer—“Help, Lord, or we perish!”

Through every conflict but the last,
Still, still unchanging, watch beside
My bed of pain, for thou hast died;
Then point to realms of cloudless day,
And wipe the latest tear away.

1 O sacred Head, now wounded,
 With grief and shame weighed down,
 How scornfully surrounded,
 With thorns, thine only crown;
 O sacred Head, what glory,
 What bliss, till now was thine!
 Yet, though despised and gory,
 I joy to call thee mine.

2 What thou, my Lord, hast suffered
 Was all for sinners' gain;
 Mine, mine was the transgression,
 But thine the deadly pain:
 Lo, here I fall, my Saviour!
 'Tis I deserve thy place;
 Look on me with thy favor,
 Vouchsafe to me thy grace.

3 What language shall I borrow
 To thank thee, dearest Friend,
 For this thy dying sorrow,
 Thy pity without end?
 O make me thine forever;
 And, should I fainting be,
 Lord, let me never, never,
 Outlive my love to thee!

4 Be near me when I'm dying,
 O show thy cross to me!
 And for some succor flying,
 Come, Lord, and set me free!
 These eyes, new faith receiving,
 From Jesus shall not move;
 For he who dies believing,
 Dies safely through thy love.

 Son of God, 'tis thou! 'tis thou!

3 Bound upon th' accursed tree,
 Sad and dying, who is he?

 By the baffled, burning thirst,
 By the side so deeply pierced,
 Crucified! we know thee now;
 Son of Man, 'tis thou! 'tis thou!

4 Bound upon th' accursed tree,
 Dread and awful, who is he?
 By the spoiled and empty grave,
 By the souls he died to save,

1. A - las! and did my Saviour bleed? And did my Sovereign die? Would he de-vote that sacred head For such a worm as I?

Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide
And shut his glories in,
When Christ, the mighty Maker, died,
For man, the creature's sin.

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face
While his dear cross appears,
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt mine eyes to tears.

The debt of love I owe:
Here, Lord, I give myself away,

1 From the cross the blood is falling,
 And to us a voice is calling,
 Like a trumpet silver-clear;
 'Tis the voice announcing pardon,

 All our wounds forever healing,
 And removing every load;
 Words of peace that Voice has spoken
 Peace that shall no more be broken,
 Peace between the soul and God.

 God is Light;—we see it beaming,

138

THOMAS SCOTT. 1769.

- 1 Angels, roll the rock away;
Death, yield up thy mighty prey;
See! he rises from the tomb,—
Rises with immortal bloom.
- 2 'Tis the Saviour; seraphs, raise
Your triumphant shouts of praise;
Let the earth's remotest bound
Hear the joy-inspiring sound.
- 3 Lift, ye saints, lift up your eyes;
Now to glory see him rise;
Hosts of angels on the road
Hail and sing th' incarnate God.
- 4 Praise him, all ye heavenly choirs,
Praise him with your golden lyres;
Praise him in your noblest songs;
Praise him from ten thousand tongues.

CHARLES WESLEY. 1739.

- 1 Hail the day that sees him rise,
To his throne above the skies;
Christ, the Lamb for sinners given,
Enters now the highest heaven.
- 2 There for him high triumph waits;
Lift your heads, eternal gates!
He hath conquered death and sin,
Take the King of Glory in.
- 3 Lo, the heaven its Lord receives!
Yet he loves the earth he leaves;
Though returning to his throne,
Still he calls mankind his own.
- 4 Lord, though parted from our sight
Far above the starry height,
Grant our hearts may thither rise,
Seeking thee above the skies.

1. Thou, Lord, art gone on high, To realms beyond the skies; And round thy throne unceasingly The songs of praise arise; But we are lingering here, With sin and care oppressed; Lord, send thy promised

Comforter, And lead us to our rest.

2 Thou, Lord, art gone on high ;
But thou didst first come down,
Through earth's most bitter misery,
To pass unto thy crown ;
And girt with griefs and fears,
Our onward course must be ;
But only let that path of tears
Lead us at last to thee.

140

EMMA LESLIE TOKE. 1851.

1 Thou, Lord, art gone on high,
To realms beyond the skies ;
And round thy throne unceasingly
The songs of praise arise ;
But we are lingering here,
With sin and care oppressed ;
Lord, send thy promised Comforter,
And lead us to our rest.

3 Thou, Lord, art gone on high ;
But thou shalt come again,
With all the bright ones of the sky
Attendant in thy train.
O by thy saving power,
So make us live and die,
That we may stand, in that dread hour
At thy right hand on high.

THOMAS KELLY. 1820.

1 The head that once was crowned with thorns,
Is crowned with glory now ;
A royal diadem adorns
The mighty Victor's brow.
2 The joy of all who dwell above,
The joy of all below,
To whom he manifests his love,
And grants his name to know.

3 To them the cross, with all its shame,
With all its grace, is given ;
Their name an everlasting name,
Their joy the joy of heaven.
4 The cross he bore is life and health,
Though shame and death to him,
His people's hope, his people's wealth,
Their everlasting theme.

 { Gone to heaven, where mortal eye (Omit.) } Can not reach the radiant sky;

Through the veil of time and space Passed into the holiest place; All his toil and sorrow done.

All the bat - tle fought and won.

2 He is gone! we heard him say,
 " Good that I should go away; "
 Gone is that dear form and face,
 But not gone his present grace;
 Though himself no more we see,
 Comfortless we can not be:
 No; his Spirit still is ours,
 Quickening, freshening all our powers.

1 He is gone! a cloud of light
 Hath received him from our sight;
 Gone to heaven, where mortal eye
 Can not reach the radiant sky;
 Through the veil of time and space
 Passed into the holiest place;
 All his toil and sorrow done,
 All the battle fought and won.

3 He is gone! and we remain
 In this world of sin and pain:
 In the void which he has left,
 On this earth of him bereft,
 We have still his work to do,
 We can still his path pursue;
 We can follow him below,
 And his bright example show.

143 ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

1 O for a shout of sacred joy
 To God, the sovereign King!
 Let every land their tongues employ,
 And hymns of triumph sing.

3 While angels shout and praise their King,
 Let mortals learn their strains;
 Let all the earth his honors sing;
 O'er all the earth he reigns.

2 Jesus, our God, ascends on high;
 His heavenly guards around
 Attend him rising through the sky,
 With trumpets' joyful sound.

4 Speak forth his praise with awe profound;
 Let knowledge guide the song;
 Nor mock him with a solemn sound,
 Upon a thoughtless tongue.

The joyful news Of sins forgiven,

What joy the blest assurance gives!
And now, before his Father, God,

And justice, armed with frowns, appears;
But in the Saviour's lovely face
Sweet mercy smiles, and all is peace.

Above our fears, above our faults,
His powerful intercessions rise;

Of our High Priest above;
His heart is full of tenderness;
His bosom glows with love.

He knows our feeble frame;
He knows what sore temptations mean,
For he has felt the same.

Poured out his cries and tears,
And in his measure feels afresh
What every member bears.

His mercy and his power;
We shall obtain delivering grace
In each distressing hour.

With matchless honors crowned,

Deep graven on his heart;

taint-ed life, The sick with fe-vered frame.

2 And lo! thy touch brought life and health,
Gave speech and strength and sight;
And youth renewed and frenzy calmed
Owned thee, the Lord of light;
And now, O Lord, be near to bless,
Almighty as of yore,
In crowded street, by restless couch,
As by Gennesareth's shore.

Give wisdom's heavenly lore,

May praise thee evermore.

MATTHEW BRIDGES. 1847.

1 Crown him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon his throne;
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own!
Awake, my soul, and sing
Of him who died for thee;
And hail him as thy matchless King
Through all eternity.

2 Crown him, the Lord of love :
Behold his hands and side,
Rich wounds yet visible above
In beauty glorified :
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his burning eye
At mysteries so bright.

3 Crown him, the Lord of years,
The Potentate of time,
Creator of the rolling spheres,
Ineffably sublime :
Glassed in a sea of light,
Whose everlasting waves
Reflect his form—the Infinite—
Who lives and loves and saves.

All above, and gives it worth:
Lord of life, thy smile enlightens,
Cheers, and charms thy saints on earth:
When we think of love like thine,
Lord, we own it love divine.

3 King of glory, reign forever;
Thine an everlasting crown:
Nothing from thy love shall sever
Those whom thou hast made thine own;
Happy objects of thy grace,
Destined to behold thy face.

It bade my dark forebodings cease;
And, through the storm and danger's thrall,
It led me to the port of peace.
Now, safely moored, my perils o'er,

1. Now for a tune of lofty praise To great Je-ho-vah's e-qual Son:

A-wake, my voice, in heavenly lays, And tell the won-ders he hath done.

155

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 Now for a tune of lofty praise
To great Jehovah's equal Son:
Awake, my voice, in heavenly lays,
And tell the wonders he hath done.
- 2 Sing how he left the worlds of light,
And those bright robes he wore above:
How swift and joyful was his flight,
On wings of everlasting love.
- 3 Deep in the shades of gloomy death,
Th'almighty Captive prisoner lay;
Th'almighty Captive left the earth,
And rose to everlasting day.
- 4 Among a thousand harps and songs,
Jesus, the God, exalted reigns:
His sacred name fills all their tongues,
And echoes through the heavenly plains.

156

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 What equal honors shall we bring
To thee, O Lord our God, the Lamb,
When all the notes that angels sing
Are far inferior to thy name?
- 2 Worthy is he that once was slain,
The Prince of life that groaned and died,
Worthy to rise, and live and reign
At his almighty Father's side.
- 3 Honor immortal must be paid,
Instead of scandal and of scorn;
While glory shines around his head,
He wears a crown without a thorn.
- 4 Blessings forever on the Lamb,
Who bore the curse for wretched men!
Let angels sound his sacred name,
And every creature say "Amen."

 His lov - ing kindness, lov - ing kindness, His lov - ing kind - ness, O how free!

SAMUEL MEDLEY. 1787.

- 1 Awake, my soul, in joyful lays,
 And sing thy great Redeemer's praise;
 He justly claims a song from me!
 His loving kindness, O how free!
- 2 He saw me ruined by the fall,
 Yet loved me, notwithstanding all;
 He saved me from my lost estate;
 His loving kindness, O how great!
- 3 I often feel my sinful heart
 Prone from my Saviour to depart;
 But though I oft have him forgot,
 His loving kindness changes not.
- 4 Soon shall I pass the gloomy vale;
 Soon all my mortal powers must fail;
 O, may my last, expiring breath
 His loving kindness sing in death.

158

WILLIAM HAMMOND. 1749.

- 1 Awake, and sing the song
 Of Moses and the Lamb;
 Wake, every heart and every tongue,
 To praise the Saviour's name.
- 2 Sing of his dying love;
 Sing of his rising power;
 Sing, how he intercedes above
 For those whose sins he bore.
- 3 Sing on your heavenly way,
 Ye ransomed sinners, sing;
 Sing on, rejoicing every day,
 In Christ, th' eternal King.
- 4 Soon shall we hear him say, —
 "Ye blessed children, come;"
 Soon will he call us hence away,
 To our eternal home.

Praise ye his name.
Angels his name adore,
Who all our sorrows bore,
And saints cry evermore,

Cheerfully join in one,
Praising his name.
We who have felt his blood
Sealing our peace with God,
Spread his dear fame abroad
"Worthy the Lamb!"

Our Lord and God to bless;
Praise ye his name!
In him we will rejoice,
Making a cheerful noise,
And say with heart and voice,
"Worthy the Lamb!"
- 4 Though we must change our place,
Our souls shall never cease
Praising his name;
To him we'll tribute bring,
Laud him our gracious King,
And through all ages sing,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

160

JAMES BODEN. 1801

- 1 Come, all ye saints of God,
Through all the earth abroad,
Spread Jesus' fame:
Tell what His love hath done;
Trust in his name alone;
Shout to his lofty throne,
"Worthy the Lamb!"
 - 2 Hence, gloomy doubts and fears!
Dry up your mournful tears;
Join our glad theme:
Beauty for ashes bring;
Strike each melodious string;
Join heart and voice to sing,
"Worthy the Lamb!"
 - 3 Hark! how the choirs above,
Filled with the Saviour's love,
Dwell on his name!
There, too, may we be found,
With light and glory crowned,
While all the heavens resound,
"Worthy the Lamb!"
- DOXOLOGY
- To God, the Father, Son,

CHARLES WESLEY. 1740.

- 1 O for a thousand tongues to sing
My dear Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of his grace.
- 2 My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad
The honors of thy name.
- 3 Jesus, the name that calms my fears,
That bids my sorrow cease;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears;
'Tis life and health and peace.
- 4 He breaks the power of reigning sin,
He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean;
His blood availed for me.

BYEFIELD. C. M.

DR. THOS. HASTINGS. 1784-1872.

1. Plunged in a gulf of dark de - spair, We wretch - ed sin - ners lay,
With - out one cheer - ful beam of hope, Or spark of glimm'ring day.

165

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 Plunged in a gulf of dark despair,
We wretched sinners lay,
Without one cheerful beam of hope,
Or spark of glimmering day.
- 2 With pitying eyes the Prince of grace
Beheld our helpless grief;
He saw, and,—O, amazing love!—
He flew to our relief.
- 3 Down from the shining seats above,
With joyful haste he fled,
Entered the grave in mortal flesh,
And dwelt among the dead.
- 4 O for this love, let rocks and rills
Their lasting silence break,
And all harmonious human tongues
The Saviour's praises speak.

WARWICK. C. M.

SAMUEL STANLEY. 1767-1822.

1. Come, let us join our cheer-ful songs With an-gels round the throne;
Ten thou-sand thou-sand are their tongues, But all their joys are one.

166

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 Come, let us join our cheerful songs
With angels round the throne;
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.
- 2 "Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry,
"To be exalted thus:"
"Worthy the Lamb," our lips reply,
"For he was slain for us."
- 3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and power divine;
And blessings more than we can give,
Be, Lord, forever thine.
- 4 The whole creation join in one
To bless the sacred name
Of him who sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

167

ANNE STEELE. 1760.

- 1 Come, ye that love the Saviour's name,
And joy to make it known,
The Sovereign of your hearts proclaim,
And bow before his throne.
- 2 When in his earthly courts we view
The glories of our King,
We long to love as angels do,
And wish like them to sing.
- 3 And shall we long and wish in vain?
Lord, teach our songs to rise:
Thy love can raise our humble strain,
And bid it reach the skies.
- 4 O, happy period! glorious day!
When heaven and earth shall raise,
With all their powers, their raptured lay,
To celebrate thy praise.

NOTTINGHAM C. M.

1. Ma-jes-tic sweetness sits enthroned Up-on the Saviour's brow; His head with radiant glo-ries crowned, His lips with grace o'er - flow, His lips with grace o'er - flow.

SAMUEL STENNETT. 1787.

1 Majestic sweetness sits enthroned
Upon the Saviour's brow;
His head with radiant glories crowned,
His lips with grace o'erflow.

2 No mortal can with him compare,
Among the sons of men;
Fairer is he than all the fair
That fill the heavenly train.

3 To him I owe my life and breath,
And all the joys I have;
He makes me triumph over death,
He saves me from the grave.

4 Since from his bounty I receive
Such proofs of love divine,
Had I a thousand hearts to give,
Lord, they should all be thine.

169

ANNE STEELE. 1760.

1 To our Redeemer's glorious name,
Awake the sacred song.
O may his love,—immortal flame,—
Tune every heart and tongue.

2 His love, what mortal thought can reach,
What mortal tongue display?
Imagination's utmost stretch
In wonder dies away.

3 Dear Lord, while we adoring pay
Our humble thanks to thee,
May every heart with rapture say,
"The Saviour died for me."

DOXOLOGY.

170

JOHN NEWTON. 1779.

- 1 How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fear.
- 2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary rest.
- 3 Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought;
But when I see thee as thou art,
I'll praise thee as I ought.
- 4 Till then, I would thy love proclaim
With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of thy name
Refresh my soul in death.

171

FREDERICK WHITFIELD. 1859.

- 1 There is a name I love to hear,
I love to sing its worth;
It sounds like music in mine ear,
The sweetest name on earth.
- 2 It tells me of a Saviour's love,
Who died to set me free;
It tells me of his precious blood,
The sinner's perfect plea.
- 3 Jesus, the name I love so well,
The name I love to hear!
No saint on earth its worth can tell,
No heart conceive how dear.
- 4 This name shall shed its fragrance still
Along this thorny road;
Shall sweetly smooth the rugged hill
That leads me up to God.

JAMES MONTGOMERY. 1825.

- 1 Songs of praise the angels sang,
Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
When Jehovah's work begun,
When he spake, and it was done.
- 2 Songs of praise awoke the morn
When the Prince of peace was born;
Songs of praise arose when he
Captive led captivity.
- 3 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice;
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.
- 4 Borne upon their latest breath,
Songs of praise shall conquer death;
Then, amidst eternal joy,
Songs of praise their powers employ.

173

MARTIN MADAN. 1763.

- 1 Now begin the heavenly theme;
Sing aloud in Jesus' name;
Ye who his salvation prove,
Triumph in redeeming love.
- 2 Mourning souls, dry up your tears;
Banish all your guilty fears;
See your guilt and curse remove,
Cancelled by redeeming love.
- 3 Welcome, all by sin oppressed,
Welcome to his sacred rest;
Nothing brought him from above,
Nothing but redeeming love.
- 4 Hither, then, your music bring;
Strike aloud each cheerful string;
Mortals, join the host above,
Join to praise redeeming love.

- 2 Near the cross, a trembling soul,
Love and mercy found me;
There the bright and morning star
Sheds its beams around me.

- 3 Near the cross! O Lamb of God,
Bring its scenes before me;
Help me walk from day to day,
With its shadow o'er me.
- 4 Near the cross I'll watch and wait,
Hoping, trusting ever,
Till I reach the golden strand,
Just beyond the river.

Higher than the heavens above,
Deeper than the depths of sea,

- Lasting as eternity;
Love that found me,—wondrous thought!—
Found me when I sought him not!
- 3 Chief of sinners though I be,
Christ is all in all to me;
All my wants to him are known,
All my sorrows are his own;
Safe with him from earthly strife,
He sustains my hidden life.

 Hail, ye saints, who know his favor,
 Who within his gates are found;
 Hail, ye saints, the exalted Saviour,
 Let his courts with praise resound.

2 Jesus, thee our Saviour hailing,
 Thee our God in praise we own;
 Highest honors, never failing,
 Rise eternal round thy throne;
 Now, ye saints, his power confessing
 In your grateful strains adore:
 For his mercy, never ceasing,
 Freely flows for evermore.

ROBERT ROBINSON. 1757.

2 Here I raise my Ebenezer;
 Hither by thy help I'm come;
 And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
 Safely to arrive at home:
 Jesus sought me when a stranger,
 Wandering from the fold of God;
 He to save my soul from danger,
 Interposed his precious blood.

3 O, to grace how great a debtor
 Daily I'm constrained to be!
 Let that grace, Lord, like a fetter,
 Bind my wandering heart to thee.
 Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it;
 Prone to leave the God I love;
 Here's my heart; Lord, take and seal it;
 Seal it from thy courts above.

Mocking thus the Saviour's claim ;
Saints and angels crowd around him,

Own his title, praise his name :
Crown him, crown him;
Spread abroad the Victor's fame.

Hark ! those loud triumphant chords !
Jesus takes the highest station ;
O what joy the sight affords !
Crown him, crown him,

CATHERINE HANKEY. 1865.

1 Tell me the old, old story
Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and his glory,
Of Jesus and his love.
Tell me the story simply,
As to a little child,
For I am weak and weary,
And helpless and defiled.

2 Tell me the story slowly,
That I may take it in—
That wonderful redemption,
God's remedy for sin!
Tell me the story often,
For I forget so soon!
The "early dew" of morning
Has passed away at noon!

3 Tell me the story softly,
With earnest tones and grave;
Remember! I'm the sinner
Whom Jesus came to save.
Tell me that story always,
If you would really be,
In any time of trouble,
A comforter to me.

4 Tell me the same old story,
When you have cause to fear
That this world's empty glory
Is costing me too dear.
O yes, and when its glory
Is drawing on my soul,
Tell me the old, old story:
"Christ Jesus makes thee whole."

2 When'er the sweet church bell

May Jesus Christ be praised.
O, hark to what it sings,
As joyously it rings,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

3 The night becomes as day,
When from the heart we say
May Jesus Christ be praised:
The powers of darkness fear,
When this sweet chant they hear,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

4 In heaven's eternal bliss
The loveliest strain is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised:
Let earth, and sea, and sky
From depth to height reply,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

JESUS CHRIST—PRAISE AND ADORATION.

ARIEL. C. P. M.

Arr. by DR. LOWELL MASON. 1792-1872.

1. O could I speak the matchless worth, O could I sound the glories forth Which in my Saviour shine!

{ I'd soar and touch the heavenly strings, }
{ And vie with Gabriel while he sings } In notes almost divine, In notes almost di-vine.

192

SAMUEL MEDLEY. 1789.

1 O could I speak the matchless worth,
O could I sound the glories forth
Which in my Saviour shine!
I'd soar and touch the heavenly strings,
And vie with Gabriel while he sings
In notes almost divine.

2 I'd sing the precious blood he spilt,
My ransom from the dreadful guilt
Of sin and wrath divine!

I'd sing his glorious righteousness,
In which all-perfect, heavenly dress
My soul shall ever shine.

3 I'd sing the characters he bears,
And all the forms of love he wears,
Exalted on his throne:
In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
I would to everlasting days
Make all his glories known.

1. Ask ye what great thing I know, That de-lights and stirs me so? What the high re-ward I win? Whose the name I glo-ry in? Je-sus Christ, the Cru-ci-fied.

2 What is faith's foundation strong?
What awakes my lips to song?
He who bore my sinful load,
Purchased for me peace with God—
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.

3 Who is life, in life to me?
Who the death of death will be?
Who will place me on his right
With the countless hosts of light
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.

193

J. S. B. MONSELL. 1863.

1 Ask ye what great thing I know,
That delights and stirs me so?
What the high reward I win?
Whose the name I glory in?
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.

4 This is that great thing I know;
This delights and stirs me so;
Faith in him who died to save,
Him who triumphed o'er the grave—
Jesus Christ, the Crucified.

1. Ho - ly Ghost, with light di - vine, Shine up - on this heart of mine;

Chase the shades of night a - way; Turn the dark - ness in - to day.

ANDREW REED. 1841.

1 Holy Ghost, with light divine,
Shine upon this heart of mine;
Chase the shades of night away;
Turn the darkness into day.

2 Holy Ghost, with power divine,
Cleanse this guilty heart of mine;
Long has sin, without control,
Held dominion o'er my soul.

3 Holy Ghost, with joy divine,
Cheer this saddened heart of mine;
Bid my many woes depart,
Heal my wounded, bleeding heart.

4 Holy Spirit, all divine,
Dwell within this heart of mine;
Cast down every idol throne;
Reign supreme, and reign alone.

195

W. H. BATHURST. 1831.

1 Holy Spirit, from on high,
O'er us bend a pitying eye;
Now refresh the drooping heart;
Bid the power of sin depart.

2 Light up every dark recess
Of our hearts' ungodliness;
Show us every devious way
Where our steps have gone astray

3 Teach us, with repentant grief,
Humbly to implore relief;
Then the Saviour's blood reveal,
And our broken spirits heal.

4 May we daily grow in grace,
And pursue the heavenly race,
Trained in wisdom, led by love,
Till we reach our rest above.

1. Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove, With all thy quickening powers, Kindle a flame of sacred love In these cold hearts of ours.

196

ISAAC WATTS. 1707

- 1 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers,
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.
- 2 Look! how we grovel here below,
Fond of these earthly toys;
Our souls can neither fly nor go
To reach eternal joys.
- 3 In vain we tune our formal songs;
In vain we strive to rise;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.
- 4 Dear Lord, and shall we ever live
At this poor dying rate,
Our love so faint, so cold to thee,
And thine to us so great?
- 5 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

197

ISAAC WATTS. 1709.

- 1 Not all the outward forms on earth,
Nor rites that God has given,
Nor will of man, nor blood, nor birth,
Can raise a soul to heaven.
- 2 The sovereign will of God alone
Creates us heirs of grace,
Born in the image of his Son,
A new, peculiar race.

- 3 The Spirit, like some heavenly wind,
Breathes on the sons of flesh,
Creates anew the carnal mind,
And forms the man afresh.
- 4 Our quickened souls awake and rise
From their long sleep of death;
On heavenly things we fix our eyes,
And praise employs our breath.

ANNE STEELE. 1760.

- 1 How helpless guilty nature lies,
Unconscious of its load!
The heart, unchanged, can never rise
To happiness and God.
- 2 Can aught beneath a power divine
The stubborn will subdue?
'Tis thine, eternal Spirit, thine
To form the heart anew.
- 3 'Tis thine the passions to recall,
And upward bid them rise,
And make the scales of error fall
From reason's darkened eyes;
- 4 To chase the shades of death away,
And bid the sinner live;
A beam of heaven, a vital ray,
'Tis thine alone to give.
- 5 O, change these wretched hearts of ours,
And give them life divine;
Then shall our passions and our powers,
Almighty Lord, be thine.

Great Com-fort - er! de - scend and bring Some to - kens of thy grace.

199

ISAAC WATTS. 1709.

- 1 Why should the children of a King
Go mourning all their days?
Great Comforter! descend and bring
Some tokens of thy grace.
- 2 Dost thou not dwell in all the saints,
And seal the heirs of heaven?
When wilt thou banish my complaints,
And show my sins forgiven?

- 3 Assure my conscience of her part
In the Redeemer's blood;
And bear thy witness with my heart
That I am born of God.
- 4 Thou art the earnest of his love,
The pledge of joys to come;
And thy soft wings, celestial Dove,
Will safe convey me home.

200

HARRIET AUBER. 1829.

- 1 Our blest Redeemer, ere he breathed
His tender, last farewell,
A Guide, a Comforter, bequeathed
With us to dwell.
- 2 He came sweet influence to impart,
A gracious, willing guest,
While he can find one humble heart
Wherein to rest.

- 3 And his that gentle voice we hear,
Soft as the breath of even,
That checks each thought, that calms each fear,
And speaks of heaven.
- 4 Spirit of purity and grace,
Our weakness, pitying, see:
O make our hearts, thy dwelling-place,
More worthy thee.

Though I have done thee such despite;
Cast not a sinner quite away,

- 2 Though I have most unfaithful been
Of all who e'er thy grace received,
Ten thousand times thy goodness seen,
Ten thousand times thy goodness grieved;
- 3 Yet, O, the chief of sinners spare,
In honor of my great High Priest;
Nor, in thy righteous anger, swear
I shall not see thy people's rest.
- 4 My weary soul, O God, release;
Uphold me with thy gracious hand;
O guide me into perfect peace,
And bring me to the promised land.

202

SIMON BROWNE. 1720.

- 1 Come, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With light and comfort from above;
Be thou our Guardian, thou our Guide;
O'er every thought and step preside.
- 2 To us the light of truth display,
And make us know and choose thy way;
Plant holy fear in every heart,
That we from God may ne'er depart.
- 3 Lead us to holiness, the road
Which we must take to dwell with God;
Lead us to Christ, the living way;
Nor let us from his pastures stray.
- 4 Lead us to God, our final rest,
To be with him forever blest;
Lead us to heaven, its bliss to share,

Thy blessing from on high: We plead the promise of thy word; Grant us thy Holy Spirit, Lord.

1 O thou that hearest prayer,
Attend our humble cry,
And let thy servants share

Thy blessing from on high:

If they, with love sincere,

Their varied wants supply,—
Much more wilt thou thy love display,
And answer when thy children pray.

3 Our heavenly Father, thou;
We, children of thy grace;
O let thy Spirit now
Descend and fill the place:
So shall we feel the heavenly flame,
And all unite to praise thy name.

1 Eternal Spirit, we confess

From God the Father and the Son.

2 Enlightened by thine heavenly ray,
Our shades and darkness turn to day;
Thine inward teachings make us know
Our danger and our refuge too.

3 Thy power and glory work within,

Our wild, imperious lusts subdue,
And form our wretched hearts anew.

4 The troubled conscience knows thy voice:
Thy cheering words awake our joys;
Thy words allay the stormy wind,
And calm the surges of the mind.

1. { Ho-ly Spir-it, faith-ful Guide, Ev-er near the Christian's side, }
 { Gently lead us by the hand, Pilgrims in a des-ert land; } Weary souls for-e'er rejoice, While they hear that sweetest voice,
 D. C. Whisp'ring softly, wand'rer, come! Follow me, I'll guide thee home.

M. M. WELLS. 1858.

1 Holy Spirit, faithful Guide,
 Ever near the Christian's side,
 Gently lead us by the hand,
 Pilgrims in a desert land;
 Weary souls fore'er rejoice,
 While they hear that sweetest voice,
 Whisp'ring softly, wanderer, come!
 Follow me, I'll guide thee home.

2 Ever present, truest Friend,
 Ever near thine aid to lend,
 Leave us not to doubt and fear,
 Groping on in darkness drear.

When the storms are raging sore,
 Hearts grow faint, and hopes give o'er-
 Whisper softly, wanderer, come!
 Follow me, I'll guide thee home.

3 When our days of toil shall cease,
 Waiting still for sweet release,
 Nothing left but heaven and prayer,
 Wondering if our names are there;
 Wading deep the dismal flood,
 Pleading naught but Jesus' blood,
 Whisper softly, wanderer, come!
 Follow me, I'll guide thee home.

206

JOSEPH HART. 1759.

1 Come, Holy Spirit, come;
 Let thy bright beams arise;
 Dispel the sorrow from our minds,
 The darkness from our eyes.

2 Convince us all of sin;
 Then lead to Jesus' blood,
 And to our wondering view reveal
 The mercies of our God.

3 Revive our drooping faith,
 Our doubts and fears remove,

And kindle in our breasts the flame
 Of never-dying love.

4 'Tis thine to cleanse the heart,
 To sanctify the soul,
 To pour fresh life in every part,
 And new-create the whole.

5 Dwell, Spirit, in our hearts;
 Our minds from bondage free;
 Then shall we know and praise and love

TE DEUM. P. M.

Arr. from J. S. BACH. 1685-1750.

Cherubim and Seraphim
In unceasing chorus praising,
Fill the heavens with sweet accord:
Holy! holy! holy Lord!

3 Holy Father, Holy Son,
Holy Spirit, three we name thee,
While in essence, only one,
Undivided God, we claim thee;
And, adoring, bend the knee,
While we own the mystery.

4 Spare thy people, Lord, we pray,
By a thousand snares surrounded;
Keep us without sin to-day,
Never let us be confounded.
Lo! I put my trust in thee,
Never, Lord, abandon me,

211

Tr. by C. A. WALWORTH. 1853.

1 Holy God, we praise thy name!
Lord of all, we bow before thee;

All in heaven above adore thee;
Infinite thy vast domain,

Angel-choirs above are raising:

- 1 How precious is the book divine,
By inspiration given!
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,
To guide our souls to heaven.
- 2 O'er all the strait and narrow way
Its radiant beams are cast;
A light whose never-weary ray
Grows brightest at the last.
- 3 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts,
In this dark vale of tears;
Life, light, and joy it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.

Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.

Yield me a heavenly song.

Thy promises of grace
Are pillars to support my hope,
And there I write thy praise.

I. The heavens declare thy glory, Lord; In every star thy wisdom shines; But when our eyes behold thy word, We read thy name in fair-er lines, We read thy name in fair-er lines.

220

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

1 The heavens declare thy glory, Lord;
In every star thy wisdom shines;
But when our eyes behold thy word,
We read thy name in fairer lines.

2 Sun, moon, and stars convey thy praise
Round the whole earth, and never stand;
So when thy truth began its race,
It touched and glanced on every land.

3 Nor shall thy spreading gospel rest,
Till through the world thy truth has run;
Till Christ has all the nations blest
That see the light, or feel the sun.

4 Great Sun of Righteousness, arise,
Bless the dark world with heavenly light;
Thy gospel makes the simple wise,
Thy laws are pure, thy judgments right.

BENJAMIN BEDDOME. 1787.

1 God, in the gospel of his Son,
Makes his eternal counsels known :
Here love in all its glory shines,
And truth is drawn in fairest lines.

2 Here, sinners of an humble frame
May taste his grace, and learn his name;
May read, in characters of blood,
The wisdom, power, and grace of God.

3 Here, faith reveals to mortal eyes
A brighter world beyond the skies;
Here shines the light which guides our way
From earth to realms of endless day.

4 O grant us grace, almighty Lord,
To read and mark thy holy word,
Its truth with meekness to receive,
And by its holy precepts live.

UXBRIDGE. L. M.

DR. LOWELL MASON. 1792-1872.

I. God, in the gos-pel of his Son, Makes his e-ter-nal coun-sels known:

THE WORD OF GOD.

SWISS TUNE. L. P. M.

GERMAN.

1. I love the vol-ume of thy word; What light and joy its leaves af-ford
To souls be-night-ed and distressed! Thy pre-cepts guide my doubt-ful way;
Thy fear for-bids my feet to stray; Thy prom-ise leads my heart to rest.

222

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

1 I love the volume of thy word;
What light and joy its leaves afford
To souls benighted and distressed!
Thy precepts guide my doubtful way;
Thy fear forbids my feet to stray;
Thy promise leads my heart to rest.

2 Thy threatenings wake my slumbering eyes,
And warn me where my danger lies;
But 'tis thy blessed gospel, Lord,

That makes my guilty conscience clean,
Converts my soul, subdues my sin,
And gives a free but large reward.

3 Who knows the errors of his thoughts?
My God, forgive my secret faults,
And from presumptuous sins restrain;
Accept my poor attempts of praise,
That I have read thy book of praise,
And book of nature, not in vain.

NASHVILLE. L. P. M.

Arr. from Daye's Psalter. 1562.

1. I love the volume of thy word; What light and joy its leaves afford To souls be-night-ed and distressed! { Thy precepts guide my doubtful way; }
Thy fear for-bids my feet to stray; Thy promise leads my heart to rest.

MAN'S LOST CONDITION.

ST. BRIDE. S. M.

S. HOWARD. 1720-1782.

1. Ah! how shall fallen man Be just be - fore his God?

If he con - tend in right - eous - ness, We fall be - neath his rod.

223

ISAAC WATTS. 1720.

- 1 Ah! how shall fallen man
Be just before his God?
If he contend in righteousness,
We fall beneath his rod.
- 2 If he our ways should mark
With strict, inquiring eyes,
Could we for one of thousand faults
A just excuse devise?
- 3 The mountains, in thy wrath,
Their ancient seats forsake;
The trembling earth deserts her place;
Her rooted pillars shake.
- 4 Ah! how shall guilty man
Contend with such a God?
None, none can meet him, and escape,
But through the Saviour's blood.

224

ISAAC WATTS. 1709.

- 1 Is this the kind return?
Are these the thanks we owe,
Thus to abuse eternal love,
Whence all our blessings flow?
- 2 To what a stubborn frame
Has sin reduced our mind!
What strange, rebellious wretches we!
And God as strangely kind.
- 3 Turn, turn us, mighty God,
And mould our souls afresh;
Break, sovereign grace, these hearts of stone,
And give us hearts of flesh.
- 4 Let past ingratitude
Provoke our weeping eyes,
And hourly, as new mercies fall,
Let hourly thanks arise.

OZREM. S. M.

I. B. WOODBURY. 1819-1858.

1. Is this the kind re - turn? Are these the thanks we owe,

Thus to a - buse e - ter - nal love, Whence all our bless - ings flow?

MAN'S LOST CONDITION.

MERIBAH. C. P. M.

DR. LOWELL MASON. 1792-1872.

1. A - waked by Si - nai's aw - ful sound, My soul in bonds of guilt I found,

And knew not where to go; E - ter - nal truth did loud pro - claim,

"The sin - ner must be born a - gain, Or sink in end - less woe."

225

SAMSON OCCUM. 1760.

- 1 Awaked by Sinai's awful sound,
My soul in bonds of guilt I found,
And knew not where to go;
Eternal truth did loud proclaim,
"The sinner must be born again,
Or sink in endless woe."
- 2 Amazed I stood, but could not tell
Which way to shun the gates of hell,
For death and hell drew near;
I strove, indeed, but strove in vain:
"The sinner must be born again"
Still sounded in my ear.
- 3 When to the law I trembling fled,
It poured its curses on my head;
I no relief could find:
This fearful truth increased my pain:
"The sinner must be born again"
O'erwhelmed my tortured mind.
- 4 But while I thus in anguish lay,
Jesus of Nazareth passed that way,
And felt his pity move:
The sinner, by his justice slain,
Now by his grace is born again,
And sings redeeming love.

226

CHARLES WESLEY. 1749.

- 1 Lo! on a narrow neck of land,
"Twixt two unbounded seas I stand,
Secure, insensible!
A point of time, a moment's space,
Removes me to yon heavenly place,
Or shuts me up in hell.
- 2 O God, mine inmost soul convert,
And deeply on my thoughtful heart
Eternal things impress;
Give me to feel their solemn weight
And tremble on the brink of fate,
And wake to righteousness.
- 3 Before me place, in dread array,
The pomp of that tremendous day
When thou with clouds shalt come
To judge the nations at thy bar;
And tell me, Lord, shall I be there
To meet a joyful doom?
- 4 Then, Saviour, then my soul receive,
Transported from this vale, to live
And reign with thee above,
Where faith is sweetly lost in sight,
And hope in full, supreme delight,
And everlasting love.

GRIGGS. C. M.

J. GRIGG. 1815-1852.

1. How sad our state by nature is! Our sin, how deep it stains!
And Sa - tan binds our cap - tive minds Fast in his slav - ish chains.

227

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 How sad our state by nature is!
Our sin, how deep it stains!
And Satan binds our captive minds
Fast in his slavish chains.
- 2 But, hark! a voice of sovereign love!
'Tis Christ's inviting word:
"Ho! ye despairing sinners, come,
And trust upon the Lord."
- 3 My soul obeys the almighty call,
And runs to this relief;
I would believe thy promise, Lord;
O help my unbelief.
- 4 A guilty, weak, and helpless worm,
On thy kind arms I fall;
Be thou my strength and righteousness,
My Saviour and my all.

228

C. F. ALEXANDER. 1858.

- 1 When wounded sore, the stricken soul
Lies bleeding and unbound,
One only hand, a pierced hand,
Can heal the sinner's wound.
- 2 When sorrow swells the laden breast,
And tears of anguish flow,
One only heart, a broken heart,
Can feel the sinner's woe.
- 3 When penitence has wept in vain
O'er some dark spot within,
One only stream, a stream of blood,
Can wash away the sin.
- 4 'Tis Jesus' blood that washes white,
His hand that brings relief,
His heart that knows our every joy,
And feels our every grief.

BEMERTON. C. M.

H W. GREATOREX. 1811-1858.

1. When wound-ed sore, the strick-en soul Lies bleed-ing and un-bound,
One on-ly hand, a pierc-ed hand, Can heal the sin-ner's wound.

PROVISIONS OF THE GOSPEL.

EASTON. L. M.

MOZART. 1756-1791.

1. How sweetly flowed the gos-pel sound From lips of gen-tle-ness and grace,
When listening thou-sands gath-ered round, And joy and glad-ness filled the place!

SIR JOHN BOWRING. 1825.

- 1 How sweetly flowed the gospel sound
From lips of gentleness and grace,
When listening thousands gathered round,
And joy and gladness filled the place!
- 2 From heaven he came, of heaven he spoke,
To heaven he led his followers' way;
Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke,
Unveiling an immortal day.
- 3 "Come, wanderers, to my Father's home,
Come, all ye weary ones, and rest:"
Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come,
Obey thee, love thee, and be blest.
- 4 Decay, then, tenements of dust;
Pillars of earthly pride, decay;
A nobler mansion waits the just,
And Jesus has prepared the way.

230

ISAAC WATTS. 1709.

- 1 Not to condemn the sons of men,
Did Christ, the Son of God, appear;
No weapons in his hands are seen,
No flaming sword nor thunder there.
 - 2 Such was the pity of our God,
He loved the race of man so well,
He sent his Son to bear our load
Of sins, and save our souls from hell.
 - 3 Sinners, believe the Saviour's word;
Trust in his mighty name, and live;
A thousand joys his lips afford,
His hands a thousand blessings give.
- DOXOLOGY.
- To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Be honor, praise, and glory given,
By all on earth, and all in heaven!

ROLLAND. L. M.

W. B. BRADBURY. 1816-1868.

1. Not to condemn the sons of men, Did Christ, the Son of God, appear; No weapons in his hands are seen, No flaming sword nor thunder there, No flam-ing sword nor thunder there.

PROVISIONS OF THE GOSPEL.

COWPER. C. M.

DR. LOWELL MASON. 1792-1872.

i. There is a fount - ain filled with blood, Drawn from Im-man-uel's veins; And sinner, plunged beneath that flood, Lose all their guilty stains, Lose all their guilty stains.

WILLIAM COWPER. 1779.

1 There is a fountain filled with blood,
Drawn from Immanuel's veins;
And sinners, plunged beneath that flood,
Lose all their guilty stains.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there have I, as vile as he,
Washed all my sins away.

3 Thou dying Lamb, thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed church of God
Be saved to sin no more.

4 E'er since, by faith, I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.

5 And when this feeble, faltering tongue
Lies silent in the grave,
Then, in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing thy power to save.

232

ANNE STEELE. 1760.

1 The Saviour calls; let every ear
Attend the heavenly sound;
Ye doubting souls, dismiss your fear;
Hope smiles reviving round.

2 For every thirsty, longing heart
Here streams of bounty flow;
And life and health and bliss impart,
To banish mortal woe.

3 Dear Saviour, draw reluctant hearts;
To thee let sinners fly,
And take the bliss thy love imparts,
And drink, and never die.

FOUNTAIN. C. M.

ARR. DR. LOWELL MASON. 1830.

i. There is a fountain filled with blood, Drawn from Immanuel's veins; And sinners, plunged beneath that flood, Lose all their guilty stains, Lose all their guilty stains, Lose all their guilty stains.

PROVISIONS OF THE GOSPEL.

ABRIDGE. C. M.

ISAAC SMITH. 1800.

1. Let ev - ery mor - tal ear at - tend, And ev - ery heart re - joice;
The trum - pet of the gos - pel sounds, With an in - vit - ing voice.

233

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 Let every mortal ear attend,
And every heart rejoice;
The trumpet of the gospel sounds,
With an inviting voice.
- 2 Ho! all ye hungry, starving souls,
That feed upon the wind,
And vainly strive with earthly toys
To fill an empty mind,—
- 3 Eternal wisdom has prepared
A soul-reviving feast,
And bids your longing appetites
The rich provision taste.
- 4 Ho! ye that pant for living streams,
And pine away and die,
Here you may quench your raging thirst
With springs that never dry.

- 5 The happy gates of gospel grace
Stand open night and day;
Lord, we are come to seek supplies,
And drive our wants away.

234

ISAAC WATTS. 1709.

- 1 Salvation! O the joyful sound!
'Tis pleasure to our ears,
A sovereign balm for every wound,
A cordial for our fears.
- 2 Buried in sorrow and in sin,
At hell's dark door we lay;
But we arise, by grace divine,
To see a heavenly day.
- 3 Salvation! let the echo fly
The spacious earth around,
While all the armies of the sky
Conspire to raise the sound.

CAMBRIDGE. C. M.

JOHN RANDALL. 1715-1799.

1. Sal - vation! O the joy - ful sound! 'Tis pleasure to our ears, A sov'reign balm for ev-ery wound, A cordial for our fears, A cordial for our fears, A cor-dial for our fears.

PROVISIONS OF THE GOSPEL.

LENOX. H. M.

LEWIS EDSON. 1748-1820.

1. Blow ye the trum-pet, blow, The glad-ly sol-ern sound; Let all the nations know, To earth's remotest bound,
The year of ju-bi-lee is come; The year of ju-bi-lee is come, Re-turn, ye ransomed sin-ners, home.

CHARLES WESLEY. 1750.

1 Blow ye the trumpet, blow,
The gladly solemn sound;
Let all the nations know,
To earth's remotest bound,
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

2 Exalt the Lamb of God,
The sin-aton-ing Lamb;
Redemption by his blood
Through all the lands proclaim:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

3 The gospel trumpet hear,
The news of pardoning grace:
Ye happy souls, draw near;
Behold your Saviour's face:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

4 Jesus, our great High Priest,
Has full atonement made;
Ye weary spirits, rest;
Ye mourning souls, be glad:
The year of jubilee is come,
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

BOYLSTON. S. M.

DR. LOWELL MASON. 1792-1872.

1. Not all the blood of beasts, On Jew-ish al-tars slain, Could give the guilty conscience peace, Or wash a-way the stain.

236

ISAAC WATTS 1709.

1 Not all the blood of beasts,
On Jewish altars slain,
Could give the guilty conscience peace,
Or wash away the stain.

2 But Christ, the heavenly Lamb,
Takes all our sins away,—
A sacrifice of nobler name,
And richer blood than they.

3 My faith would lay her hand
On that dear head of thine,
While like a penitent I stand,
And there confess my sin.

4 My soul looks back to see
The burden thou didst bear,
When hanging on the cursed tree,
And hopes her guilt was there.

HORATIUS BONAR. 1857.

1 Thy works, not mine, O Christ,
Speak gladness to this heart ;
They tell me all is done ;
They bid my fear depart :
To whom, save thee, Who canst alone
For sin atone, Lord, shall I flee ?

2 Thy wounds, not mine, O Christ,
Can heal my bruised soul ;
Thy stripes, not mine, contain
The balm that makes me whole .
To whom, save thee, Who canst alone
For sin atone, Lord, shall I flee ?

3 Thy cross, not mine, O Christ,
Has borne the awful load
Of sins that none could bear
But the incarnate God :
To whom, save thee, Who canst alone
For sin atone, Lord, shall I flee ?

4 Thy death, not mine, O Christ,
Has paid the ransom due ;
Ten thousand deaths like mine
Would have been all too few :
To whom, save thee, Who canst alone
For sin atone, Lord, shall I flee ?

CLAUDIA. 7s, 6l.

Arr. from Choral Friend, by W. H. D.

1. From the cross uplifted high, Where the Saviour deigns to die, What melodious songs we hear,

Bursting on the ravished ear! "Love's redeeming work is done; Come and welcome, sinner, come.

THOMAS HAWEIS. 1792.

1 From the cross uplifted high,
Where the Saviour deigns to die,
What melodious songs we hear,
Bursting on the ravished ear!
"Love's redeeming work is done;
Come and welcome, sinner, come.

2 "Sprinkled now with blood the throne,
Why beneath thy burdens groan?
On my pierced body laid,
Justice owns the ransom paid;
Bow the knee, embrace the Son;
Come and welcome, sinner, come.

3 "Spread for thee, the festal board
See, with richest dainties stored;
To thy Father's bosom pressed,
Yet again a child confessed,
Never from his house to roam;
Come and welcome, sinner, come.

4 "Soon the days of life shall end—
Lo, I come—your Saviour, Friend!
Safe your spirit to convey
To the realms of endless day
Up to my eternal home—
Come and welcome, sinner, come."

ALETTA. 7s, 6l.

W. B. BRADBURY. 1816-1868.

1. { Weeping soul, no longer mourn, Jesus all thy griefs hath borne; }
{ View him bleeding on the tree, Pour-ing out his life for thee; } There thy every sin he bore; Weeping soul, lament no more.

A. M. TOPLADY. 1759.

1 Weeping soul, no longer mourn,
Jesus all thy griefs hath borne;
View him bleeding on the tree,
Pouring out his life for thee;
There thy every sin he bore;
Weeping soul, lament no more.

2 All thy crimes on him were laid;
See upon his blameless head
Wrath its utmost vengeance pours,

Due to my offense and yours;
Weary sinner, keep thine eyes
On th' atoning sacrifice.

3 Cast thy guilty soul on him,
Find him mighty to redeem;
At his feet thy burden lay,
Look thy doubts and fears away;
Now by faith the Son embrace,
Plead his promise, trust his grace.

1. O Je - sus, thou art stand - ing Out - side the fast - closed door, In low - ly pa - tience wait - ing

To pass the threshold o'er: We bear the name of Christians, His name and sign we bear: O shame, thrice shame up - on us, To keep him standing there!

2 O Jesus, thou art knocking;
And lo! that hand is scarred,
And thorns thy brow encircle,
And tears thy face have marred:
O love that passeth knowledge,
So patiently to wait!
O sin that hath no equal,
So fast to bar the gate!

240

WILLIAM WALSHAM HOW. 1854.

1 O Jesus, thou art standing
Outside the fast-closed door,
In lowly patience waiting
To pass the threshold o'er:
We bear the name of Christians,
His name and sign we bear:
O shame, thrice shame upon us,
To keep him standing there!

3 O Jesus, thou art pleading
In accents meek and low,—
“I died for you, my children,
And will ye treat me so?”
O Lord, with shame and sorrow
We open now the door:
Dear Saviour, enter, enter,
And leave us nevermore!

LOOK AWAY TO JESUS. 6s, 5s. D.

F. P. BLISS. 1838-1876

1. Look away to Je-sus, Soul by woe oppressed; 'Twas for thee he suffered, Come to him and rest;

All thy griefs he carried, All thy sins he bore; Look away to Je-sus, Trust him ever-more.

By per. J. Church & Co.

241

HENRY BURTON.

- 1 Look away to Jesus,
Soul by woe oppressed;
'Twas for thee he suffered,
Come to him and rest;
All thy griefs he carried,
All thy sins he bore;
Look away to Jesus,
Trust him evermore.
- 2 Look away to Jesus,
When the skies are fair;
Calm seas have their dangers,
Mariner, beware!

Earthly joys are fleeting,
Going as they came,
Look away to Jesus,
Evermore the same.

- 3 When, amid the music
Of the endless feast,
Saints will sing his praises,
Thine shall not be least;
Then, amid the glories
Of the crystal sea,
Look away to Jesus,
Through eternity.

SILOAM. C. M.

I. B. WOODBURY. 1819-1858.

1. And did the Ho-ly and the Just, the Sov'-reign of the skies, Stoop down to wretchedness and dust, That guilty man might rise?

- 2 Yes, the Redeemer left his throne,
His radiant throne on high,—
Surprising mercy! love unknown!
To suffer, bleed, and die.
- 3 He took the dying traitor's place,
And suffered in his stead;
For sinful man,—O wondrous grace!—
For sinful man he bled.

242

ANNE STEELE. 1760.

- 1 And did the Holy and the Just,
The Sovereign of the skies,
Stoop down to wretchedness and dust,
That guilty man might rise?

- 4 O Lord, what heavenly wonders dwell
In thine atoning blood!
By this are sinners saved from hell,
And rebels brought to God.

1. There is a line, by us un - seen, That cross - es ev - ery path,
That hid - den bound - a - ry be - tween God's pa - tience and his wrath.

247

J. A. ALEXANDER. 1809-1860.

- 1 There is a line, by us unseen,
That crosses every path,
That hidden boundary between
God's patience and his wrath.
- 2 To pass that limit is to die,
To die as if by stealth;
It does not quench the beaming eye,
Nor pale the glow of health.
- 3 How far may we go on to sin?
How long will God forbear?
Where does hope end, and where begin
The confines of despair?
- 4 An answer from the skies is sent,—
"Ye that from God depart,
While it is called to-day, repent,
And harden not your heart."

248

ANON.

- 1 Amazing sight! the Saviour stands
And knocks at every door;
Ten thousand blessings in his hands,
To satisfy the poor.
- 2 "Behold," he saith, "I bleed and die
To bring you to my rest:
Hear, sinners, while I'm passing by,
And be forever blest.
- 3 "Will you despise my bleeding love,
And choose the way to hell?
Or, in the glorious realms above,
With me, forever dwell?
- 4 "Say, will you hear my gracious voice,
And have your sins forgiven?
Or, will you make that wretched choice,
And bar yourselves from heaven?"

1. Broad is the road that leads to death, And thousands walk together there ; But wisdom shows a narrow path, With here and there a traveler.

ISAAC WATTS. 1709.

- 1 Broad is the road that leads to death,
And thousands walk together there ;
But wisdom shows a narrow path,
With here and there a traveler.
- 2 "Deny thyself and take thy cross,"
Is the Redeemer's great command :
Nature must count her gold but dross,
If she would gain this heavenly land.
- 3 The fearful soul that tires and faints,
And walks the ways of God no more,
Is but esteemed almost a saint,
And makes his own destruction sure.
- 4 Lord, let not all my hopes be vain,
Create my heart entirely new,—
Which hypocrites could ne'er attain,
Which false apostates never knew.

250

PHILIP DODDRIDGE. 1755.

- 1 Why will ye waste on trifling cares
That life which God's compassion spares ;
While, in the various range of thought,
The one thing needful is forgot ?
- 2 Shall God invite you from above ?
Shall Jesus urge his dying love ?
Shall troubled conscience give you pain,
And all these pleas unite in vain ?
- 3 Not so your eyes will always view
Those objects which you now pursue ;
Not so will heaven and hell appear,
When death's decisive hour is near.
- 4 Almighty God, thy grace impart ;
Fix deep conviction on each heart ;
Nor let us waste on trifling cares
That life which thy compassion spares.

263

S. F. SMITH. 1832.

1 When thy mortal life is fled,
When the death-shades o'er thee spread,
When is finished thy career,
Sinner, where wilt thou appear?

2 When the world has passed away,
When draws near the judgment-day,
When the awful trump shall sound,
Say, O where wilt thou be found?

3 When the Judge descends in light,
Clothed in majesty and might,
When the wicked quail with fear,
Where, O where wilt thou appear?

4 What shall soothe thy bursting heart,
When the saints and thou must part?
When the good with joy are crowned,
Sinner, where wilt thou be found?

5 While the Holy Ghost is nigh,
Quickly to the Saviour fly:
Then shall peace thy spirit cheer;
Then in heaven shalt thou appear.

Will you slight his grace, and die?

4 Sinners, turn; why will ye die?

Knock, and weep, and watch, and wait:
Knock—he knows the sinner's cry;
Weep—he loves the mourner's tears;
Watch, for saving grace is nigh;
Wait, till heavenly grace appears.

2 Hark! it is the Saviour's voice—
"Welcome, pilgrim, to thy rest!"
Now within the gate rejoice,
Safe, and owned, and bought, and blest:

Safe, from all the lures of vice;
Owned, by joys the contrite know;
Bought by love, and life the price;
Blest, the mighty debt to owe.

3 Weary pilgrim! what for thee
In a world like this remains?
From thy guarded breast shall flee
Fear, and shame, and doubts, and pains
Fear, the hope of heaven shall fly;
Shame, from glory's view retire;
Doubt, in full belief, shall die;
Pain, in endless bliss, expire.

1 Child of sin and sorrow,
Filled with dismay,
Wait not for to-morrow,
Yield thee to-day.
Heaven bids thee come
While yet there's room;
Child of sin and sorrow,
Hear and obey.

2 Child of sin and sorrow,
Why wilt thou die?
Come while thou canst borrow
Help from on high;
Grieve not that love
Which from above,
Child of sin and sorrow,
Would bring thee nigh.

1. To-day the Saviour calls; Ye wand'ers, come; O ye benighted souls, Why longer roam?

280

S. F. SMITH. 1832.

1 To-day the Saviour calls;
Ye wand'ers, come;
O ye benighted souls,
Why longer roam?

2 To-day the Saviour calls;
O hear him now;
Within these sacred walls
To Jesus bow.
3 To-day the Saviour calls;
For refuge fly;

The storm of justice falls,
And death is nigh.
4 The Spirit calls to-day:
Yield to his power;
O grieve him not away,
'Tis mercy's hour.

1 O come, sinner, come, there's room for thee,
Hark! 'tis mercy's call;
O come and receive salvation free,
Hark! 'tis mercy's call.

REF.—O come and rest, come and rest,
Heavy-laden, guilt-oppressed;
O come and rest, come and rest,
Hark! 'tis mercy's call.

2 O come, thy Redeemer waits to-day,
Hark! 'tis mercy's call;
Now wash in his blood thy sins away,
Hark! 'tis mercy's call.

3 Come, lay at his feet thy weary soul,
Hark! 'tis mercy's call;
Thy faith in his name will make thee whole,
Hark! 'tis mercy's call.

2 "Almost persuaded," come, come to-day.
"Almost persuaded," turn not away.
Jesus invites you here,
Angels are lingering near,
Prayers rise from hearts so dear;
O wanderer, come!

282

P. P. BLISS. 1852.

1 "Almost persuaded" now to believe;
"Almost persuaded" Christ to receive.
Seems now some soul to say,
"Go, Spirit, go thy way,
Some more convenient day,
On thee I'll call."

3 "Almost persuaded," harvest is past!
"Almost persuaded," doom comes at last!
"Almost" can not avail;
"Almost" is but to fail!
Sad, sad that bitter wail,—
"Almost," but lost!

CHARLOTTE ELLIOTT. 1836.

1 Just as I am, without one plea,
But that thy blood was shed for me,
And that thou bidd'st me come to thee,
O Lamb of God, I come!

2 Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come!

3 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt,
Fightings within, and fears without,
O Lamb of God, I come!

4 Just as I am,—poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come!

5 Just as I am,—thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come!

6 Just as I am,—thy love unknown
Has broken every barrier down;
Now to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come!

1. { O for a glance of heavenly day, To take this stubborn heart a - way, }
And melt, with beams of love di-vine, (Omit.) This heart, this frozen heart of mine!

284

JOSEPH HART. 1759.

1 O for a glance of heavenly day,
To take this stubborn heart away,
And melt, with beams of love divine,
This heart, this frozen heart of mine!

2 The rocks can rend; the earth can quake;
The seas can roar; the mountains shake:
Of feeling, all things show some sign,
But this unfeeling heart of mine.

3 But power divine can do the deed;
And, Lord, that power I greatly need;
Thy Spirit can from dross refine,
And melt and change this heart of mine.

4 O Breath of life, breathe on my soul!
On me let streams of mercy roll;
Now melt, with rays of love divine,
This heart, this frozen heart of mine.

1. A broken heart, my God, my King, Is all the sacrifice I bring: The God of grace will ne'er despise A broken heart for sacrifice.

285

ISAAC WAITS. 1719.

1 A broken heart, my God, my King,
Is all the sacrifice I bring:
The God of grace will ne'er despise
A broken heart for sacrifice.

2 My soul lies humbled in the dust,
And owns thy dreadful sentence just;
Look down, O Lord, with pitying eye,
And save the soul condemned to die.

3 Then will I teach the world thy ways;
Sinners shall learn thy sovereign grace;
I'll lead them to my Saviour's blood,
And they shall praise a pardoning God.

4 O may thy love inspire my tongue!
Salvation shall be all my song;
And all my powers shall join to bless
The Lord, my strength and righteousness.

286

CORNELIUS ELVEN. 1852.

1 With broken heart and contrite sigh,
A trembling sinner, Lord, I cry;
Thy pardoning grace is rich and free:
O God be merciful to me!

2 I smite upon my troubled breast,
With deep and conscious guilt oppressed;
Christ and his cross my only plea:
O God, be merciful to me!

3 Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
Nor dare uplift them to the skies;
But thou dost all my anguish see:
O God, be merciful to me!

4 And when redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
God hath been merciful to me!

1. Jesus, the sinner's Friend, to thee, Lost and undone, for aid I flee; Weary of earth, myself, and sin, Open thine arms and take me in.

287

CHARLES WESLEY. 1739.

1 Jesus, the sinner's Friend, to thee,
Lost and undone, for aid I flee;
Weary of earth, myself, and sin,
Open thine arms and take me in.

2 Pity and save my ruined soul;
'Tis thou alone canst make me whole;
Dark, till in me thine image shine,
And lost I am till thou art mine.

3 At last I own it can not be
That I should fit myself for thee:
Here, then, to thee I all resign;
Thine is the work, and only thine.

4 What can I say thy grace to move?
Lord, I am sin,—but thou art love:
I give up every plea beside,
Lord, I am lost,—but thou hast died!

1. Show pity, Lord; O Lord, forgive; Let a repenting rebel live; Are not thy mercies large and free? May not a sinner trust in thee?

288

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

1 Show pity, Lord; O Lord, forgive;
Let a repenting rebel live;
Are not thy mercies large and free?
May not a sinner trust in thee?

2 My crimes, though great, can not surpass
The power and glory of thy grace:
Great God, thy nature hath no bound;
So let thy pardoning love be found.

3 O wash my soul from every sin,
And make my guilty conscience clean;
Here, on my heart, the burden lies,
And past offenses pain mine eyes.

4 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord,
Whose hope, still hovering round thy word,
Would light on some sweet promise there,
Some sure support against despair.

And seek an injured Father's face;
Those warm desires that in thee burn
Were kindled by redeeming grace.

2 Return, my wandering soul, return,
And seek a Father's melting heart;
His pitying eyes thy grief discern,
His heavenly balm shall heal thy smart.

3 Return, my wandering soul, return,
Thy dying Saviour bids thee live;
Go, view his bleeding side, and learn
How freely Jesus can forgive.

4 Return, my wandering soul, return,
And wipe away the falling tear;
'Tis God who says, "No longer mourn;"
'Tis mercy's voice invites thee near.

290

JOHN NEWTON. 1779.

1 Approach, my soul, the mercy-seat
Where Jesus answers prayer;
There humbly fall before his feet,
For none can perish there.

2 Thy promise is my only plea,
With this I venture nigh;
Thou callest burdened souls to thee,
And such, O Lord, am I.

3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin,
By Satan sorely prest,
By war without, and fear within,
I come to thee for rest.

4 Be thou my Shield and Hiding-place,
That, sheltered near thy side,
I may my fierce accuser face,
And tell him, thou hast died.

291

ISAAC WATTS. 1709.

1 Dearest of all the names above,
My Saviour and my God,
Who can resist thy heavenly love,
Or trifle with thy blood?

2 'Tis by the merits of thy death
The Father smiles again;
'Tis by thine interceding breath
The Spirit dwells with men.

3 Till God in human flesh I see,
My thoughts no comfort find;
The holy, just, and sacred Three
Are terrors to my mind.

4 But if Immanuel's face appear,
My hope, my joy, begin;
His name forbids my slavish fear;
His grace removes my sin

292

SAMUEL STENNETT. 1787.

1 Prostrate, dear Jesus, at thy feet
A guilty rebel lies,
And upward to thy mercy-seat
Presumes to lift his eyes.

2 If tears of sorrow would suffice
To pay the debt I owe,
Tears should from both my weeping eyes
In ceaseless torrents flow.

3 But no such sacrifice I plead
To expiate my guilt;
No tears but those which thou hast shed,
No blood but thou hast spilt.

4 Think of thy sorrows, dearest Lord!
And all my sins forgive;
Justice will well approve the word
That bids the sinner live.

1. Fa-ther, I stretch my hands to thee; No oth-er help I know;

If thou with-draw thy-self from me, Ah, whith-er shall I go?

293

CHARLES WESLEY. 1741.

1 Father, I stretch my hands to thee;
No other help I know;
If thou withdraw thyself from me,
Ah, whither shall I go?

2 What did thine only Son endure
Before I drew my breath!
What pain, what labor, to secure
My soul from endless death!

3 Author of faith, to thee I lift
My weary, longing eyes;
O may I now receive that gift!
My soul, without it, dies.

2 I saw one hanging on a tree,
In agonies and blood;
He fixed his languid eyes on me,
As near his cross I stood.

3 O never, till my latest breath,
Shall I forget that look!
It seemed to charge me with his death,
Though not a word he spoke.

4 A second look he gave, which said,
"I freely all forgive;
This blood is for thy ransom paid;
I died that thou mayst live."

294

JOHN NEWTON. 1779.

1 In evil long I took delight,
Unawed by shame or fear,

It seals my pardon too.

297

CHARLES WESLEY. 1740.

- 1 Depth of mercy! can there be
 Mercy still reserved for me?
 Can my God his wrath forbear,
 And the chief of sinners spare?
- 2 I have long withstood his grace;
 Long provoked him to his face;
 Would not hear his gracious calls;
 Grieved him by a thousand falls.
- 3 Jesus, answer from above:
 Is not all thy nature love?
 Wilt thou not the wrong forget?
 Lo, I fall before thy feet.

 Let me now my fall lament;
 Deeply my revolt deplore;
 Weep, believe, and sin no more.

 Talents wasted, time misspent;
 Hearts debased by worldly cares,
 Thankless for the blessings lent;—

 Vain regrets for things as vain;
 Lips too seldom taught to praise,
 Oft to murmur and complain;—

 Filled with grief and shame, we own;
 Humbled at thy feet we lie,
 Seeking pardon from thy throne.

| 1 My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name:
On Christ, the solid rock, I stand,
All other ground is sinking sand. 2 When darkness veils his lovely face,
I rest on his unchanging grace;
In every high and stormy gale, | My anchor holds within the veil:
On Christ, the solid rock, I stand,
All other ground is sinking sand. 3 His oath, his covenant and blood,
Support me in the whelming flood:
When all around my soul gives way,
He then is all my hope and stay:
On Christ, the solid rock, I stand,
All other ground is sinking sand. |

 He gently clears thy way;

 Yet heaven, and earth, and hell
 Proclaim, God sitteth on the throne,

 His counsel shall appear,
 When fully he the work has wrought,
 That caused thy needless fear. | 3 What'er events betide,
 Thy will they all perform;
 Safe in thy breast my head I hide,

 Of having all in thee. |

We will follow, calm and fearless:
Guide us by thy hand
To our Fatherland.

2 If the way be drear,
If the foe be near,
Let not faithless fears o'ertake us,
Let not faith and hope forsake us;
For, through many a foe,
To our home we go.

From a long-felt grief;
When temptations come alluring,
Make us patient and enduring;

3 "Mine is an unchanging love,
Higher than the heights above,
Deeper than the depths beneath,
Free and faithful, strong as death."

4 Lord, it is my chief complaint
That my love is weak and faint;
Yet I love thee, and adore;
O for grace to love thee more!

MARY F. MAUDE. 1848

1 Thine forever! God of love,
Hear us from thy throne above,
Thine forever may we be,
Here and in eternity.

2 Thine forever! O how blest
They who find in thee their rest;
Saviour, Guardian, heavenly Friend,
O defend us to the end.

3 Thine forever! Saviour, keep,
These thy frail and trembling sheep;
Safe alone beneath thy care,
Let us all thy goodness share.

4 Thine forever! thou our Guide
All our wants by thee supplied,
All our sins by thee forgiven,
Lead us, Lord, from earth to heaven.

MORE LOVE TO THEE. 6s, 4s, 6s

W. H. DOANE.

i. More love to thee, O Christ, More love to thee! Hear thou the prayer I make, On bended knee;

This is my earnest plea, More love, O Christ, to thee, More love to thee! More love to thee!

337

ELIZABETH PRENTISS. 1870.

1 More love to thee, O Christ,
More love to thee!
Hear thou the prayer I make,
On bended knee;
This is my earnest plea,
More love, O Christ, to thee,
More love to thee!

2 Once earthly joy I craved.
Sought peace and rest;
Now thee alone I seek,

Give what is best:
This all my prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to thee,
More love to thee!

3 Then shall my latest breath
Whisper thy praise;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,
This still its prayer shall be,
More love, O Christ, to thee,
More love to thee!

JESUS, THY NAME I LOVE. 6s, 4s.

1 Jesus, thy name I love,
All other names above,

O, thou art all to me;
Nothing to please I see,
Nothing apart from thee,

3 When unto thee I flee,
Thou wilt my refuge be,

What need I now to fear?
What earthly grief or care
Since thou art ever near?
Jesus, my Lord.

- 1 Jesus, thou joy of loving hearts,
Thou Fount of life, thou Light of men,
From the best bliss that earth imparts,
We turn unfilled to thee again.
- 2 We taste thee, O thou living bread!
And long to feast upon thee still;
We drink of thee, the fountain-head,
And thirst our souls from thee to fill.
- 3 Our restless spirits yearn for thee,
Where'er our changeful lot is cast;
Glad when thy gracious smile we see,
Blest when our faith can hold thee fast.
- 4 O Jesus, ever with us stay;
Make all our moments calm and bright;
Chase the dark night of sin away;
Shed o'er the world thy holy light.

- 1 Fountain of grace, rich, full, and free,
What need I that is not in thee?
Full pardon, strength to meet the day,
And peace which none can take away.
- 2 Doth sickness fill the heart with fear?
'Tis sweet to know that thou art near.
Am I with dread of justice tried?
'Tis sweet to feel that Christ hath died.
- 3 In life, thy promises of aid
Forbid my heart to be afraid;
In death, peace gently veils the eyes;
Christ rose, and I shall surely rise.

Nor pain nor sin nor death can harm
The weakest shielded by thine arm.

341

A. L. HILLHOUSE. 1816.

1 Trembling before thine awful throne,
O Lord! in dust my sins I own:
Justice and mercy for my life
Contend; O smile and heal the strife!

2 The Saviour smiles! upon my soul
New tides of hope tumultuous roll;
His voice proclaims my pardon found,
Seraphic transport wings the sound.

3 Earth has a joy unknown in heaven,
The new-born peace of sin forgiven!
Tears of such pure and deep delight,
Ye angels, never dimmed your sight.

4 Though I amid your choirs shall shine,
And all your knowledge will be mine;
Ye on your harps must lean to hear
A secret chord that mine will bear.

342

PHILIP DODDRIDGE. 1755.

1 O, happy day, that fixed my choice
On thee, my Saviour and my God!
Well may this glowing heart rejoice,
And tell its raptures all abroad.

2 'Tis done,—the great transaction's done;
I am my Lord's, and he is mine;
He drew me, and I followed on,
Rejoiced to own the call divine.

3 Now rest, my long-divided heart,
Fixed on this blissful center, rest;
Here have I found a nobler part,
Here heavenly pleasures fill my breast.

4 High heaven that hears the solemn vow,
That vow renewed shall daily hear;
Till in life's latest hour I bow,
And bless in death a bond so dear.

345

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 My God, the spring of all my joys,
The life of my delights,
The glory of my brightest days,
And comfort of my nights!
- 2 In darkest shades, if he appear,
My dawning is begun;
He is my soul's bright morning star,
And he my rising sun.
- 3 The opening heavens around me shine
With beams of sacred bliss,
While Jesus shows his love is mine,
And whispers, I am his.
- 4 My soul would leave this heavy clay,
At that transporting word,
And run with joy the shining way,
To meet my gracious Lord.

- 3 Ah, grace! into unlikeliest hearts
It is thy boast to come,
The glory of thy light to find
In darkest spots a home.
- 4 The crowd of cares, the weightiest cross
Seem trifles less than light;
Earth looks so little and so low
When faith shines full and bright.
- 5 O happy, happy that I am!
If thou canst be, O faith,
The treasure that thou art in life,
What wilt thou be in death?

346

F. W. FABER. 1849.

- 1 O gift of gifts! O grace of faith!
My God! how can it be

How many souls more worthy far
Of that sweet touch of thine!

1 I was a wandering sheep,
I did not love the fold;
I did not love my Shepherd's voice,
I would not be controlled:
I was a wayward child,
I did not love my home;
I did not love my Father's voice,
I loved afar to roam.

2 The Shepherd sought his sheep,
The Father sought his child;
He followed me o'er vale and hill,
O'er deserts waste and wild:
He found me nigh to death,
Famished and faint and lone;
He bound me with the bands of love,
He saved the wandering one.

3 Jesus my Shepherd is;
'Twas he that loved my soul,
'Twas he that washed me in his blood,
'Twas he that made me whole;
'Twas he that sought the lost,
That found the wandering sheep;
'Twas he that brought me to the fold,
'Tis he that still doth keep.

4 No more a wandering sheep,
I love to be controlled;
I love my tender Shepherd's voice,
I love the peaceful fold:
No more a wayward child,
I seek no more to roam;
I love my heavenly Father's voice,
I love, I love his home!

When at first I believed,
What true joy I received!
What a heaven in Jesus' sweet name!

"He hath suffered and died

1 I need thee every hour,
Most gracious Lord;
No tender voice like thine
Can peace afford.
REF.—I need thee, O, I need thee;
Every hour I need thee;
O bless me now, my Saviour!
I come to thee.

2 I need thee every hour;
Stay thou near by;

Temptations lose their power
When thou art nigh.

3 I need thee every hour:
Teach me thy will;
And thy rich promises
In me fulfill.

4 I need thee every hour,
Most Holy One;
O make me thine indeed,
Thou blessed Son.

DRAW ME NEARER. P. M.

REFRAIN.

1. { I am thine, O Lord; I have heard thy voice, And it told thy love to me; }
 { But I long to rise in the arms of faith, (Omit.) } And be closer drawn to thee. Draw me near - er, nearer, nearer,

nearer, blessed Lord, To the cross where thou hast died; Draw me nearer, nearer, nearer, blessed Lord, To thy precious bleeding side.

FRANCES JANE VAN ALSTYNE 1875

1 I am thine, O Lord; I have heard thy voice,
 And it told thy love to me;
 But I long to rise in the arms of faith,
 And be closer drawn to thee.

REF.—Draw me nearer, nearer, blessed Lord,
 To the cross where thou hast died;
 Draw me nearer, nearer, nearer, blessed Lord,
 To thy precious bleeding side.

2 Consecrate me now to thy service, Lord,
 By the power of grace divine;

Let my soul look up with a steadfast hope,
 And my will be lost in thine.

3 O the pure delight of a single hour
 That before thy throne I spend,
 When I kneel in prayer, and with thee, my God,
 I commune as friend with friend.

4 There are depths of love that I can not know
 Till I cross the narrow sea;
 There are heights of joy that I may not reach
 Till I rest in peace with thee.

1 Love divine, all love excelling,
 Joy of heaven, to earth come down!
 Fix in us thy humble dwelling;
 All thy faithful mercies crown.
 Jesus, thou art all compassion,
 Pure, unbounded love thou art;
 Visit us with thy salvation,
 Enter every trembling heart

2 Breathe, O breathe thy Holy Spirit
 Into every troubled breast;
 Let us all thy grace inherit;
 Let us find thy promised rest;
 Take away the love of sinning;
 Take our load of guilt away;
 End the work of thy beginning;
 Bring us to eternal day.

1 More like Jesus would I be,

Fill my soul with peace and love,
Make me gentle as a dove;
More like Jesus, while I go,
Pilgrim in this world below;
Poor in spirit would I be,—
Let my Saviour dwell in me.

2 If he hears the raven's cry,
If his ever-watchful eye
Marks the sparrows when they fall,
Surely he will hear my call.

He will teach me how to live,
All my sinful thoughts forgive;
Pure in heart I still would be,—
Let my Saviour dwell in me.

3 More like Jesus when I pray,
More like Jesus day by day;
May I rest me by his side,
Where the tranquil waters glide,
Born of him, through grace renewed,
By his love my will subdued,
Rich in faith I still would be,—
Let my Saviour dwell in me.

368

ISAAC WATTS. 1709.

1 Come, gracious Lord, descend and dwell,
By faith and love, in every breast;
Then shall we know and taste and feel
The joys that can not be expressed.

2 Come, fill our hearts with inward strength,
Make our enlarged souls possess,
And learn the height and breadth and length
Of thine eternal love and grace.

3 Now to the God whose power can do
More than our thoughts and wishes know,
Be everlasting honors done,
By all the church, through Christ his Son.

369

CHARLES WESLEY. 1742.

1 O that my load of sin were gone!
O that I could at last submit
At Jesus' feet to lay it down,
To lay my soul at Jesus' feet!

2 Rest for my soul I long to find;
Saviour of all, if mine thou art,
Give me thy meek and lowly mind,
And stamp thine image on my heart.

3 Fain would I learn of thee, my God,
Thy light and easy burden prove;
The cross, all stained with hallowed blood,
The labor of thy dying love.

4 I would, but thou must give the power :
My heart from every sin release;
Bring near, bring near the joyful hour,
And fill me with thy perfect peace.

370

ISAAC WATTS. 1719.

1 What sinners value I resign;
Lord, 'tis enough that thou art mine;
I shall behold thy blissful face,
And stand complete in righteousness.

2 This life's a dream, an empty show;
But that bright world to which I go
Hath joys substantial and sincere;
When shall I wake and find me there ?

3 O glorious hour! O blest abode!
I shall be near and like my God;
And flesh and sin no more control
The sacred pleasures of the soul.

4 My flesh shall slumber in the ground,
Till the last trumpet's joyful sound,
Then burst the chains with sweet surprise,
And in my Saviour's image rise.

371

ANNE STEELE. 1760.

1 Jesus demands this heart of mine—
Demands my wish, my joy, my care;
But, ah! how dead to things divine,
How cold, my best affections are!

2 'Tis sin, alas! with dreadful power,
Divides my Saviour from my sight;
O for one happ, , shining hour
Of sacred freedom, sweet delight!

3 O let thy love shine forth and raise
My captive powers from sin and death.
And fill my heart and life with praise,
And tune my last expiring breath.

Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away,

1 Father, whate'er of earthly bliss
Thy sovereign will denies,
Accepted at thy throne of grace,
Let this petition rise:—

2 Give me a calm, a thankful heart,
From every murmur free;
The blessings of thy grace impart,
And make me live to thee.

3 Let the sweet hope that thou art mine
My life and death attend;
Thy presence through my journey shine,
And crown my journey's end.

375

WILLIAM COWPER. 1779.

1 O for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame,
A light to shine upon the road

2 Where is the blessedness I knew
When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and his word?

3 What peaceful hours I then enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

4 Return, O Holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest;
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.

5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

2 No tranquil joys on earth I know,
No peaceful sheltering dome:

This world is not my home.

3 To Jesus Christ I sought for rest;

390

JOHN NEWTON. 1779

1 How tedious and tasteless the hours
When Jesus no longer I see!
Sweet prospects, sweet birds, and sweet flowers,
Have all lost their sweetness with me.
The midsummer sun shines but dim;
The fields strive in vain to look gay;
But when I am happy in him,
December's as pleasant as May.

2 His name yields the richest perfume,
And sweeter than music his voice;
His presence disperses my gloom,
And makes all within me rejoice:
I should, were he always thus nigh,
Have nothing to wish or to fear;
No mortal so happy as I;
My summer would last all the year.

3 Content with beholding his face,
My all to his pleasure resigned,
No changes of season or place
Would make any change in my mind.
While blest with a sense of his love,
A palace a toy would appear;
And prisons would palaces prove,
If Jesus would dwell with me there.

4 Dear Lord, if indeed I am thine,
If thou art my sun and my song,
Say, why do I languish and pine?
And why are my winters so long?
O drive these dark clouds from my sky;
Thy soul-cheering presence restore;
Or take me unto thee on high,
Where winter and clouds are no more.

1. Lord, when we bow be - fore thy throne, And our con - fes - sions pour,
O may we feel the sins we own, And hate what we de - plore.

395

JOSEPH D. CARLYLE. 1805.

- 1 Lord, when we bow before thy throne,
And our confessions pour,
O may we feel the sins we own
And hate what we deplore.
- 2 Our contrite spirits, pitying, see;
True penitence impart;
And let a healing ray from thee
Beam hope on every heart.
- 3 When we disclose our wants in prayer,
O let our wills resign,
And not a thought our bosom share
Which is not wholly thine.
- 4 Let faith each meek petition fill,
And waft it to the skies,
And teach our hearts 'tis goodness, still
That grants it, or denies.

396

JAMES MONTGOMERY. 1819.

- Prayer is the soul's sincere desire,
Unuttered or expressed,
The motion of a hidden fire,
That trembles in the breast.
- 2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.
- 3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer, the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.
- 4 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air,
His watchword at the gates of death;
He enters heaven with prayer.

RETREAT. L. M.

DR. THOS. HASTINGS. 1784-1872.

1. From ev - ery storm-y wind that blows, From ev - ery swell-ing tide of woes,

There is a calm, a sure re - treat— 'Tis found be - neath the mer - cy - seat.

397

HUGH STOWELL. 1832.

1 From every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat—
'Tis found beneath the mercy-seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,—
A place of all on earth most sweet;
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

3 There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.

4 There, there on eagle wings we soar,
And sin and sense molest no more,
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

398

WILLIAM COWPER. 1779.

1 What various hindrances we meet
In coming to a mercy-seat;
Yet who that knows the worth of prayer
But wishes to be often there?

2 Prayer makes the darkened clouds withdraw;
Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob saw;
Gives exercise to faith and love;
Brings every blessing from above.

3 Restraining prayer, we cease to fight;
Prayer makes the Christian's armor bright;
And Satan trembles when he sees
The weakest saint upon his knees.

4 Were half the breath oft vainly spent,
To heaven in supplication sent,
Our cheerful song would oftener be,
"Hear what the Lord has done for me."

I Je - sus, who knows full well The heart of ev - ery saint,

399

JOHN NEWTON. 1779.

1 Jesus, who knows full well
The heart of every saint,
Invites us all our grief to tell,
To pray and never faint.
2 He bows his gracious ear;
We never plead in vain;
Then let us wait till he appear,
And pray, and pray again.

3 Jesus, the Lord, will hear
His chosen when they cry;
Yes, though he may awhile forbear,
He'll help them from on high.
4 Then let us earnest cry,
And never faint in prayer;
He sees, he hears, and from on high
Will make our cause his care.

A. CHAPIN. 1813.

1. There is no sor - row, Lord, too light To bring in prayer to thee;
There is no anx - ious care too slight To wake thy sym - pa - thy.

400

JANE CREWDSOM. 1860.

1 There is no sorrow, Lord, too light
To bring in prayer to thee;
There is no anxious care too slight
To wake thy sympathy.
2 Thou who hast trod the thorny road
Wilt share each small distress;
The love which bore the greater load
Will not refuse the less.

3 There is no sorrow we breathe
But meets thine ear divine;
And every cross grows light beneath
The shadow, Lord, of thine.
4 Life's ills without, sin's strife within,
The heart would overflow,
But for that love which died for sin,
That love which wept with woe.

401

SIR ROBERT GRANT. 1815

1 Saviour, when, in dust, to thee,
Low we bend th'adoring knee;
When, repentant, to the skies,
Scarce we lift our streaming eyes;
O by all thy pains and woe
Suffered once for man below,
Bending from thy throne on high,
Hear thy people when they cry.

2 By thy birth and early years,
By thy human griefs and fears,
By thy fasting and distress
In the lonely wilderness :

By thy victory in the hour
Of the subtle tempter's power;
Jesus, look with pitying eye;
Hear thy people while they cry.

3 By thine hour of dark despair,
By thine agony of prayer,
By thy purple robe of scorn,
By thy wounds—thy crown of thorn,
By thy cross—thy pangs and cries;
By thy perfect sacrifice;
Jesus, look with pitying eye;
Hear thy people while they cry.

CHARLOTTE ELLIOTT. 1834.

1 My God, is any hour so sweet,
From blush of morn to evening star,
As that which calls me to thy feet—
The hour of prayer ?

2 Then is my strength by thee renewed;
Then are my sins by thee forgiven;
Then dost thou cheer my solitude
With hopes of heaven.

3 Hushed is each doubt, gone every fear;
My spirit seems in heaven to stay;

403

JOHN NEWTON. 1779.

1 Come, my soul, thy suit prepare,
Jesus loves to answer prayer;
He himself has bid thee pray;
Rise and ask without delay.

2 Thou art coming to a King,
Large petitions with thee bring;
For his grace and power are such,
None can ever ask too much.

3 With my burden I begin;
Lord, remove this load of sin:
Let thy blood, for sinners spilt,
Set my conscience free from guilt.

4 Lord, I come to thee for rest;
Take possession of my breast;
There thy blood-bought right maintain,
And without a rival reign.

404

JOHN NEWTON. 1779.

1 Lord, I can not let thee go,
Till a blessing thou bestow;
Do not turn away thy face,
Mine's an urgent, pressing case.

2 Once a sinner, near despair,
Sought thy mercy-seat by prayer;
Mercy heard and set him free:
Lord, that mercy came to me.

3 Thou hast helped in every need;
This emboldens me to plead;
After so much mercy past,
Canst thou let me sink at last?

4 No! I must maintain my hold;
'Tis thy goodness makes me bold;
I can no denial take,
Since I plead for Jesus' sake.

2 Sweet hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer!
 Thy wings shall my petition bear,
 To him whose truth and faithfulness
 Engage the waiting souls to bless;
 And since he bids me seek his face,
 Believe his word and trust his grace,
 I'll cast on him my every care,
 And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer.

3 Sweet hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer!
 May I thy consolation share;
 Till from Mount Pisgah's lofty height,

 To seize the everlasting prize;
 And shout, while passing through the air,
 Farewell, farewell, sweet hour of prayer.

- 1 Stand up, my soul, shake off thy fears,
And gird the gospel armor on;
March to the gates of endless joy,
Where Jesus, thy great Captain's gone.
- 2 Hell and thy sins resist thy course;
But hell and sin are vanquished foes;
Thy Saviour nailed them to the cross,
And sung the triumph when he rose.
- 3 Then let my soul march boldly on,
Press forward to the heavenly gate;
There peace and joy eternal reign,
And glittering robes for conquerors wait.

And triumph in almighty grace,
While all the armies of the skies
Join in my glorious Leader's praise.

Let every trembling thought be gone;
Awake, and run the heavenly race,
And put a cheerful courage on.
- 2 True, 'tis a strait and thorny road,
And mortal spirits tire and faint;
But they forget the mighty God,
Who feeds the strength of every saint.
- 3 From thee, the overflowing spring,
Our souls shall drink a full supply;
While those who trust their native strength
Shall melt away and droop and die.

ANON.

1 O speed thee, Christian, on thy way,
And to thy armor cling;
With girded loins the call obey
That grace and mercy bring.

2 There is a battle to be fought,
An upward race to run,
A crown of glory to be sought,
A victory to be won.

3 The shield of faith repels the dart
That Satan's hand may throw;
His arrow can not reach thy heart,
If Christ control the bow.

4 The glowing lamp of prayer will light
Thee on thy anxious road;
'Twill keep the goal of heaven in sight,
And guide thee to thy God.

CHARLES WESLEY. 1745.

1 Soldiers of Christ, arise,
And gird your armor on,
Strong in the strength which God supplies
Through his eternal Son.

2 Strong in the Lord of hosts,
And in his mighty power,
The man who in the Saviour trusts,
Is more than conqueror.

3 Stand, then, in his great might,
With all his strength endued,
And take, to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God.

4 From strength to strength go on;
Wrestle and fight and pray;
Tread all the powers of darkness down,
And win the well-fought day.

REV. GEORGE DUFFIELD, JR. 1838.

1 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high his royal banner,
It must not suffer loss:
From victory unto victory
His army shall be led,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
Stand in his strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you;—
Ye dare not trust your own:

Put on the gospel armor,
And, watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls or danger,
Be never wanting there.

3 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of battle,
The next the victor's song:
To him that overcometh,
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of glory
Shall reign eternally.

1 Brethren, while we sojourn here,
Fight we must, but should not fear;
Foes we have, but we've a Friend,
One that loves us to the end.
Forward, then, with courage go,
Long we shall not dwell below;
Soon the joyful news will come,
"Child, your Father calls,—come home!"

2 But, of all the foes we meet,
None so oft mislead our feet,
None betray us into sin,
Like the foes that dwell within:
Yet let nothing spoil your peace,
Christ will also conquer these;
Then the joyful news will come,
"Child, your Father calls,—come home!"

GEORGE NEUMARK. 1653.
 Tr. CATHERINE WINKWORTH. 1863.

1 If thou but suffer God to guide thee,
 And hope in him through all thy ways,
 He'll give thee strength whate'er betide thee,
 And bear thee through the evil days.
 Who trusts in God's unchanging love,
 Builds on the Rock that can not move.

2 What can these anxious cares avail
 thee,
 The never-ceasing moans and sighs?
 What can it help, if thou bewail thee,
 O'er each dark moment as it flies?
 Our cross and trials do but press
 The heavier for our bitterness.

3 Only be still and wait his leisure
 In cheerful hope, with heart content
 To take whate'er thy Father's pleasure
 And all-discerning love hath sent;
 No doubt our inmost wants are known
 To him who chose us for his own.

4 Sing, pray, and keep his ways unswerving,
 So do thine own part faithfully,
 And trust his word, though undeserving
 Thou yet shall find it true for thee;
 God never yet forsook at need
 The soul that trusted him indeed.

My calling to fulfill—
O may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will!

As in thy sight to live;
And O, thy servant, Lord, prepare
A strict account to give.

And on thyself rely,

I shall forever die.

1 Jesus, I my cross have taken,
All to leave, and follow thee;
Naked, poor, despised, forsaken,
Thou from hence my all shall be.
Perish every fond ambition,
All I've sought and hoped and known;
Yet how rich is my condition,
God and heaven are still my own.

2 Let the world despise and leave me,
They have left my Saviour, too;
Human hearts and looks deceive me;
Thou art not, like man, untrue;
And, while thou shalt smile upon me,
God of wisdom, love, and might,
Foes may hate, and friends may shun me;
Show thy face, and all is bright.

3 Man may trouble and distress me:
'Twill but drive me to thy breast:
Life with trials hard may press me;
Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.
O 'tis not in grief to harm me,
While thy love is left to me;
O 'twere not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmixed with thee.

4 Go, then, earthly fame and treasure!
Come, disaster, scorn, and pain!
In thy service pain is pleasure;
With thy favor, loss is gain.
I have called thee, "Abba, Father;"
I have stayed my heart on thee:
Storms may howl, and clouds may gather,
All must work for good to me.

On these my fainting spirit lives;
Here sweeter comforts cheer my heart
Than all the round of nature gives.
- 4 Let earth's alluring joys combine;
While thou art near, in vain they call;
One smile, one blissful smile, of thine,
My gracious Lord, outweighs them all.

480

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 'Tis by the faith of joys to come
We walk through deserts dark as night;
Till we arrive at heaven, our home,
Faith is our guide, and faith our light.
- 2 The want of sight she well supplies;
She makes the pearly gates appear;
Far into distant worlds she pries,
And brings eternal glories near.
- 3 With joy we tread the desert through,
While faith inspires a heavenly ray,
Though lions roar and tempests blow,
And rocks and dangers fill the way.

- 1 Jesus, thy robe of righteousness
My beauty is, my glorious dress:
'Mid flaming worlds, in this arrayed,
With joy shall I lift up my head.
- 2 When from the dust of death I rise
To claim my mansion in the skies,
E'en then shall this be all my plea,—
"Jesus hath lived and died for me."
- 3 This spotless robe the same appears
When ruined nature sinks in years;
No age can change its glorious hue;
The robe of Christ is ever new.
- 4 O let the dead now hear thy voice;
Now bid thy banished ones rejoice;
Their beauty this, their glorious dress,
Jesus, the Lord, our Righteousness.

482

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 Let me but hear my Saviour say,
"Strength shall be equal to thy day,"
Then I rejoice in deep distress,
Upheld by all-sufficient grace.
- 2 I can do all things, or can bear
All sufferings, if my Lord be there;
Sweet pleasures mingle with the pains,
While he my sinking head sustains.
- 3 I glory in infirmity,
That Christ's own power may rest on me;
When I am weak then am I strong,
Grace is my shield, and Christ my song.

ALL THE WAY. 8s, 7s. D.

REV. ROBERT LOWRY, by per.

1. All the way my Saviour leads me; What have I to ask beside? Can I doubt his tender mercy, Who thro' life has been my guide?

Heavenly peace, divinest comfort, Here by faith in him to dwell! For I know, whate'er befall me, Jesus doeth all things well; For I know, whate'er befall me, Je-sus do-eth all things well.

2 All the way my Saviour leads me;
Cheers each winding path I tread;
Gives me grace for every trial,
Feeds me with the living bread.
Though my weary steps may falter,
And my soul athirst may be,
Gushing from the rock before me,
Lo! a spring of joy I see.

508

FRANCES JANE VAN ALSTYNE. 1882.

1 All the way my Saviour leads me;
What have I to ask beside?
Can I doubt his tender mercy,
Who through life has been my guide?
Heavenly peace, divinest comfort,
Here by faith in him to dwell!
For I know, whate'er befall me,
Jesus doeth all things well.

3 All the way my Saviour leads me;
O the fullness of his love!
Perfect rest to me is promised
In my Father's house above.
When my spirit, clothed, immortal,
Wings its flight to realms of day,
This my song through endless ages—
Jesus led me all the way.

Whatever my lot, thou hast taught me to say,
It is well, it is well with my soul.

REF.—It is well with my soul,
It is well, it is well with my soul.

trials should come,

Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ hath regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed his own blood for my soul.

3 My sin—O the bliss of this glorious

My sin—not in part but the whole,
Is nailed to his cross, and I bear it no more;
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

2 They are justified by grace;
They enjoy a solid peace;
All their sins are washed away;

They shall stand in God's great day;
With them numbered may we be,

3 They have fellowship with God,

PHILIP DODDRIDGE. 1775.

1 Triumphant Zion! lift thy head
From dust and darkness and the dead;
Though humbled long, awake at length,
And gird thee with thy Saviour's strength.

2 Put all thy beauteous garments on,
And let thine excellence be known;
Decked in the robes of righteousness,
The world thy glories shall confess.

3 No more shall foes unclean invade,
And fill thy hallowed walls with dread;
No more shall hell's insulting host
Their vic'try and thy sorrows boast.

4 God from on high has heard thy prayer;
His hand thy ruins shall repair;
Nor will thy watchful monarch cease
To guard thee in eternal peace.

1 Soon may the last glad song arise,
Through all the millions of the skies;
That song of triumph which records
That all the earth is now the Lord's.

2 Let thrones and powers and kingdoms be
Obedient, mighty God, to thee;
And over land and stream and main,
Now wave the scepter of thy reign.

3 O let that glorious anthem swell;
Let host to host the triumph tell,
Till not one rebel heart remains,
But over all the Saviour reigns.

Put on thy robes of beauteous hue;
And let th' admiring world behold

2 Church of our God, arise and shine,
Bright with the beams of truth divine;
Then shall thy radiance stream afar,
Wide as the heathen nations are.

They come, like clouds across the sky,
As doves that to their windows fly.

But, Lord, thy church is praying yet,

3 For not like kingdoms of the world
Thy holy church, O God!

Immovable she stands,
A mountain that shall fill the earth,

1. The Church's one foun-da-tion Is Je-sus Christ her Lord; She is his new ere-a-tion By wa-ter and the word.

From heaven he came and sought her To be his ho-ly Bride; With his own blood he bought her, And for her life he died.

517

SAMUEL J. STONE. 1865.

1 The church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is his new creation
By water and the word:
From heaven he came and sought her
To be his holy Bride;
With his own blood he bought her,
And for her life he died.

2 Though with a scornful wonder,
Men see her sore opprest,
By schisms rent asunder,
By heresies distrest:

Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up, "how long?"
And soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song.

3 'Mid toil and tribulation,
And tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation
Of peace for evermore;
Till with the vision glorious
Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great church victorious,
Shall be the church at rest.

Beaming with the gospel's light.

What can shake her sure repose?
With salvation's wall surrounded,
She can smile at all her foes.

See the cloud and fire appear,
For a glory and a covering,
Showing that the Lord is near.

 Streams ever copious are gliding along;
 Loud from the mountain-tops echoes are ringing,
 Wastes rise in verdure and mingle in song.

 Fallen are the engines of war and com- motion,

 Zion, kept by power divine;
 All her foes shall be confounded,
 Though the world in arms combine:
 Happy Zion,
 What a favored lot is thine!
- 2 Every human tie may perish;
 Friend to friend unfaithful prove;
 Mothers cease their own to cherish;

Heaven and earth at last remove;
 But no changes
 Can attend Jehovah's love.

- 3 In the furnace God may prove thee,
 Thence to bring thee forth more bright,
 But can never cease to love thee:
 Thou art precious in his sight:
 God is with thee,—
 God, thine everlasting light.

1 Come, Holy Spirit, Dove divine,
On these baptismal waters shine,
And teach our hearts, in highest strain,
To praise the Lamb, for sinners slain.

2 We love thy name, we love thy laws,
And joyfully embrace thy cause;
We love thy cross, the shame, the pain,

3 We sink beneath thy mystic flood;
O bathe us in thy cleansing blood;
We die to sin, and seek a grave,
With thee, beneath the yielding wave.

The breath of life, the fire of love.

2 How blest the vow we here record!
How blest the grace we now receive!
Buried in baptism with our Lord,
New lives of holiness to live.

3 How blest the solemn rite that seals
Our death to sin, our guilt forgiven!
How blest the emblem that reveals
God reconciled, and peace with heaven!

4 Thus through the emblematic grave
The glorious, suffering Saviour trod;
Thou art our pattern, through the wave
We follow thee, blest Son of God.

1 Come, happy souls, adore the Lamb,

With joy they trace the sacred way,
To see the place where Jesus lay.

Heaven owned the deed, approved the way,
And blessed the place where Jesus lay.

Who find the place where Jesus lay.

- 2 Lord Jesus, we remember
The travail of thy soul,
When, in thy love's deep pity,
The waves did o'er thee roll:
Baptized in death's cold waters,
For us thy blood was shed;
For us the Lord of glory
Was numbered with the dead.
- 3 Lord, now thou art arisen,
Thy travail is all o'er,
For sin thou once hast suffered,
Thou livest to die no more;
Sin, death, and hell are vanquished,
By thee, thy church's Head;
And lo! we share thy triumphs,
Thou first-born from the dead.
- 4 Into thy death baptized,
We own with thee we died;
With thee, our life, are risen,
And in thee glorified;
From sin, the world, and Satan,
We're ransomed by thy blood,
And now would walk as strangers
Alive with thee to God.

1. A-midst us our Be - lov - ed stands, And bids us view his pierc - ed hands;
Points to the wound - ed feet and side, Blest emblems of the cru - ci - fied.

538

CHARLES H. SPURGEON. 1866.

1 Amidst us our Beloved stands,
And bids us view his pierced hands;
Points to the wounded feet and side,
Blest emblems of the crucified.

2 What food luxurious loads the board,
When at his table sits the Lord!

The wine how rich, the bread how sweet,
When Jesus deigns the guests to meet!
3 If now, with eyes defiled and dim,
We see the signs, but see not him,
O may his love the scales displace,
And bid us see him face to face!

ROSEFIELD. 7s. 6 lines.

DR. C. H. A. MALAN. 1787-1864.

1. { "Till he come," O let the words Lin - ger on the trembling chords; }
Let the lit - tle while be - tween In their gold - en light be seen; }
Let us think how heaven and home Lie be - yond that "Till he come."

539

EDWARD H. BICKERSTETH. 1866.

1 "Till he come," O let the words
Linger on the trembling chords;
Let the little while between
In their golden light be seen;
Let us think how heaven and home
Lie beyond that "Till he come."

2 Clouds and conflicts round us press;
Would we have one sorrow less?
All the sharpness of the cross,

All that tells the world is loss;
Death and darkness and the tomb
Only whisper, "Till he come."

3 See, the feast of love is spread:
Drink the wine, and break the bread;
Sweet memorials,—till the Lord
Call us round his heavenly board;
Some from earth, from glory some:
Severed only "Till he come."

1. Blest feast of love di - vine! 'Tis grace that makes us free

To feed up - on this bread and wine, In mem - ory, Lord, of thee.

540

SIR EDWARD DENNY. 1839.

1 Blest feast of love divine!
'Tis grace that makes us free
To feed upon this bread and wine,
In memory, Lord, of thee.

2 That blood which flowed for sin,
In symbol here we see,
And feel the blessed pledge within
That we are loved by thee.

3 O, if this glimpse of love
Be so divinely sweet,
What will it be, O Lord, above,
Thy gladdening smile to meet?

541

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

1 Jesus invites his saints
To meet around his board;
Here pardoned rebels sit, and hold
Communion with their Lord.

2 This holy bread and wine
Maintain our fainting breath,
By union with our living Lord,
And interest in his death.

3 Let all our powers be joined
His glorious name to raise;
Let holy love fill every mind,
And every voice be praise.

1, A parting hymn we sing. Around thy ta - ble, Lord, A-gain our grateful tribute bring. Our solemn vows re - cord.

542

AARON ROBERT WOLFE. 1821.

1 A parting hymn we sing,
Around thy table, Lord,
Again our grateful tribute bring,
Our solemn vows record.

2 Here have we seen thy face,
And felt thy presence here,
So may the savor of thy grace
In word and i'fe appear.

3 The purchase of thy blood,—
By sin no longer led,—
The path our dear Redeemer trod,
May we rejoicing tread.

4 In self-forgetful love
Be our communion shown,
Until we join the church above,
And know as we are known.

If ten - der thoughts with - in us burn, To feel a friend is nigh,

543

GERARD T. NOEL. 1813.

- 2 O shall not warmer accents tell
The gratitude we owe
To him who died our fears to quell,
And save from endless woe?
- 3 While yet his anguished soul surveyed
Those pangs he would not flee,
What love his latest words displayed!—
“Meet and remember me.”
- 4 Remember thee! thy death, thy shame,
The griefs which thou didst bear!
O memory, leave no other name
But his recorded there!

DUNDEE. C. M.

1. How sweet and awful is the place, With Christ within the doors, While everlasting Love displays The choicest of her stores!

545

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 2 While all our hearts and every song,
Join to admire the feast,
Each of us cries, with thankful tongue,
“Lord, why was I a guest?”
- 3 'Twas the same love that spread the feast
That sweetly forced us in;
Else we had still refused to taste,
And perished in our sin.
- 4 Pity the nations, O our God;
Constrain the earth to come;
Send thy victorious word abroad,
And bring the strangers home.

544

SAMUEL STENNETT. 1787.

- 1 Here at thy table, Lord, we meet,
To feed on food divine;
Thy body is the bread we eat,
Thy precious blood the wine.
- 2 Here peace and pardon sweetly flow;
O what delightful food!
We eat the bread and drink the wine,
But think on nobler good.
- 3 Sure, there was never love so free,
Dear Saviour,—so divine;
Well thou mayst claim that heart of me,
Which owes so much to thine.

546

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 To him who loved the souls of men,
And washed us in his blood,
To royal honors raised our head,
And made us priests to God,—
- 2 To him let every tongue be praise,
And every heart be love,
All grateful honors paid on earth,
And nobler songs above.
- DOXOLOGY.

One God whom we adore,
Be glory as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

1. Bread of heaven, on thee we feed, For thy flesh is meat in-deed:
Ev-er let our souls be fed With this true and liv-ing bread.

547

JOSIAH CONDER. 1824.

1 Bread of heaven, on thee we feed,
For thy flesh is meat indeed:
Ever let our souls be fed
With this true and living bread.

2 Vine of heaven, thy blood supplies
This blest cup of sacrifice:
Lord, thy wounds our healing give,
To thy cross we look and live.

3 Day by day, with strength supplied
Through the life of him who died,
Lord of life, O let us be
Rooted, grafted, built in thee!

DOXOLOGY.

Praise eternal as his love;
Praise him, all ye heavenly host,

SPANISH HYMN. 78. D.

SPANISH MELODY.

1. { Peo-ple of the liv-ing God, I have sought the world around, }
{ Paths of sin and sorrow trod, Peace and comfort nowhere found. } Now to you my spirit turns,—
Turns, a fu-gi-tive unblest; Brethren, where your altar burns, O receive me in-to rest.

548

JAMES MONTGOMERY. 1825.

1 People of the living God,
I have sought the world around,
Paths of sin and sorrow trod,
Peace and comfort nowhere found.
Now to you my spirit turns,—
Turns, a fugitive unblest;
Brethren, where your altar burns,
O receive me into rest.

2 Lonely I no longer roam,
Like the cloud, the wind, the wave;
Where you dwell shall be my home,
Where you die shall be my grave.
Mine the God whom you adore;
Your Redeemer shall be mine;
Earth can fill my soul no more;
Every idol I resign.

1 Enter, Jesus bids thee welcome
 In the fullness of his grace;
 With this hand of love we give thee
 In our hearts the warmest place:
 Hence together

2 Trials hard may oft beset thee,
 Crosses fill the path you trace,
 But a victor's palm awaits thee;

Slacken not thy heavenward pace:
 Firm together
 Let us run the Christian race.

3 Welcome then to joys and sorrows,
 Every foe and danger face;
 God is with us, we shall triumph,—
 Hallelujah to his grace!
 O what glory
 Crowns the blessed Christian race!

551

GEORGE RAWSON. 1857.

1 By Christ redeemed, in Christ restored,
We keep the memory adored.
And show the death of our dear Lord,
Until he come.

2 His body broken in our stead,
Is here in this memorial bread;
And so our feeble love is fed,
Until he come.

3 His fearful drops of agony,
His life-blood shed for us we see;
The wine shall tell the mystery,
Until he come.

4 O blessed hope! with this elate
Let not our hearts be desolate,
But, strong in faith, in patience wait
Until he come.

1 At the feet of Jesus, Listening to his word,
Learning wisdom's lesson From her loving Lord,
Mary, led by heavenly grace,
Chose the meek disciple's place.

At the feet of Jesus is the place for me,
There a humble learner would I choose to be.

2 At the feet of Jesus, Pouring perfume rare,
Mary did her Saviour For the grave prepare;
And from love the good work done,

She her Lord's approval won.
At the feet of Jesus is the place for me,
There in sweetest service would I ever be

3 At the feet of Jesus In that morning hour,
Loving hearts receiving Resurrection power,
Haste with joy to preach the word,
"Christ is risen, praise the Lord!"

At the feet of Jesus, risen now for me,
I shall sing his praises through eternity.

To Zion Jesus came,
The children all stood singing,
Hosannas to his name :
Nor did their zeal offend him,
But, as he rode along,
He let them still attend him,
And smiled to hear their song.
- 2 And since the Lord retaineth
His love for children still,
Though now as King he reigneth
On Zion's heavenly hill,
We'll flock around his banner,
Who sits upon his throne,
And cry aloud, " Hosanna

- 3 For should we fail proclaiming
Our great Redeemer's praise,
The stones our silence shaming,
Would their hosannas raise.
But shall we only render
The tribute of our words?
No; while our hearts are tender,
They too shall be the Lord's.

- 1 We bring no glittering treasures,
No gems from earth's deep mine :
We come with simple measures,
To chant thy love divine.
Children, thy favors sharing,
Their voice of thanks would raise ;
Father, accept our offering,
Our song of grateful praise.
- 2 The dearest gift of Heaven,
Love's written word of truth,
To us is early given,
To guide our steps in youth ;
We hear the wondrous story,
The tale of Calvary ;
We read of homes in glory,
From sin and sorrow free.
- 3 Redeemer, grant thy blessing!
O teach us how to pray,
That each, thy fear possessing,
May tread life's onward way ;
Then, where the pure are dwelling,
We hope to meet again,
And, sweeter numbers swelling,
Forever praise thy name.

Now let the world, a - dor - ing, see Triumphs of mer - cy wrought by thee.

WILLIAM SHRUBSOLE, JR. 1795.

1 Arm of the Lord, awake, awake;
Put on thy strength, the nations shake;
Now let the world, adoring, see
Triumphs of mercy wrought by thee.

2 Say to the heathen, from thy throne,
"I am Jehovah, God alone."
Thy voice their idols shall confound,
And cast their altars to the ground.

3 Let Zion's time of favor come;
O bring the tribes of Israel home!
Soon may our wandering eyes behold
Gentiles and Jews in Jesus' fold.

4 Almighty God, thy grace proclaim
Through every clime, of every name;
Let adverse powers before thee fall,
And crown the Saviour Lord of all.

1 Uplift the banner! Let it float Skyward and sea-ward, high and wide;

GEORGE W. DOANE. 1824.

1 Uplift the banner! Let it float
Skyward and seaward, high and wide;
The sun shall light its shining folds,
The cross on which the Saviour died.

2 Uplift the banner! Angels bend
In anxious silence o'er the sign,
And vainly seek to comprehend
The wonder of the love divine.

3 Uplift the banner! Heathen lands
Shall see from far the glorious sight,
And nations, gathering at the call,
Their spirits kindle in its light.

4 Uplift the banner! Let it float
Skyward and seaward, high and wide;
Our glory only in the cross,
Our only hope the Crucified.

WILLIAM CROSSWELL. 1845.

- 1 Lord, lead the way the Saviour went,
By lane and cell obscure;
And let our treasures still be spent,
Like his, upon the poor.
- 2 Like him, through scenes of deep distress,
Who bore the world's sad weight,
We, in their gloomy loneliness,
Would seek the desolate.
- 3 For thou hast placed us side by side
In this wide world of ill;
And that thy followers may be tried,

Exalt thy fallen head;

God omnipotent shall reign;
Hallelujah! let the word

2 Hallelujah! hark! the sound,

Wakes above, beneath, around,
All creation's harmonies:

See Jehovah's banners furled:
Sheathed his sword; he speaks,—'tis done,
And the kingdoms of this world
Are the kingdoms of his Son.

3 He shall reign from pole to pole
With illimitable sway;
He shall reign, when, like a scroll,

Man's last enemy shall fall;
Hallelujah! Christ in God,
God in Christ is all in all.

2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile?
In vain, with lavish kindness,
The gifts of God are strown;
The heathen, in his blindness,
Bows down to wood and stone.

3 Can we, whose souls are lighted
By wisdom from on high,
Can we to men benighted
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation! O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole:
Till o'er our ransomed nature
The Lamb, for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

Fright our approaching souls away;

1. { How sweet the hour of clos-ing day, When all is peace-ful and se - rene, }
 And when the sun, with cloudless ray, (Omit.) Sheds mellow lus - ter o'er the scene!

626

WILLIAM H. BATHURST. 1831.

- 1 How sweet the hour of closing day,
 When all is peaceful and serene,
 And when the sun, with cloudless ray,
 Sheds mellow luster o'er the scene!
- 2 Such is the Christian's parting hour:
 So peacefully he sinks to rest,
 When faith, endued from heaven with power,
 Sustains and cheers his languid breast.
- 3 A beam from heaven is sent to cheer
 The pilgrim on his gloomy road;
 And angels are attending near,
 To bear him to their bright abode.
- 4 Who would not wish to die like those Whom God's own Spirit deigns to bless?
 To sink into that soft repose,
 Then wake to perfect happiness?

DR. LOWELL MASON. 1792-1872.

1. Thee we adore, E-ter-nal Name, And humbly own to thee How feeble is our mor-tal frame, What dy-ing worms are we.

627

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 Thee we adore, eternal Name,
And humbly own to thee
How feeble is our mortal frame,
What dying worms are we.
- 2 The year rolls round, and steals away
The breath that first it gave;
Whate'er we do, where'er we stray,
We're traveling to the grave.
- 3 Eternal joy or endless woe,
Attends on every breath;
And yet how unconcerned we go
Upon the brink of death!
- 4 Awake, O Lord, our drowsy sense,
To walk this dangerous road;
And if our souls are hurried hence,
May they be found with God.

628

REGINALD HEBER. 1827.

- 1 Beneath our feet and o'er our head,
Is equal warning given;
Beneath us lie the countless dead,
And far above is heaven.
- 2 Death rides on every passing breeze
And lurks in every flower;
Each season has its own disease,
Its peril every hour.
- 3 Turn, sinner, turn; thy danger know;
Where'er thy feet can tread,
The earth rings hollow from below,
And warns thee of her dead.
- 4 Turn, Christian, turn; thy soul apply
To truths which hourly tell
That they who underneath thee lie
Shall live in heaven or hell.

1. It is not death to die,— To leave this wea-ry road,
And 'mid the broth-er-hood on high, To be at home with God.

632

GEORGE W. BETHUNE 1847.

- 1 It is not death to die,—
To leave this weary road,
And 'mid the brotherhood on high,
To be at home with God.
- 2 It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed by tears,
And wake in glorious repose,
To spend eternal years.
- 3 It is not death to fling
Aside this sinful dust,
And rise on strong, exulting wing,
To live among the just.
- 4 Jesus, thou Prince of life,
Thy chosen can not die;
Like thee, they conquer in the strife,
To reign with thee on high.

633

JAMES MONTGOMERY. 1831.

- 1 O for the death of those
Who slumber in the Lord!
O be like theirs my last repose,
Like theirs my last reward!
- 2 Their bodies in the ground,
In silent hope may lie,
Till the last trumpet's joyful sound
Shall call them to the sky.

On wings of faith and love,
To meet the Saviour they adore,

JAMES MONTGOMERY. 1819.

- 1 O where shall rest be found,—
Rest for the weary soul?
'T were vain the ocean depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole.
- 2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh:
'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.
- 3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,

- Unmeasured by the flight of years;
And all that life is love.
- 4 There is a death, whose pang
Outlasts the fleeting breath:
O what eternal horrors hang
Around the second death!

Teach us that death to shun;
Lest we be banished from thy face,
And evermore undone.

 Secure from worldly woes;
 Our songs of praise shall close

 'Tis but the voice that Je - sus sends, To call them to his arms.

642

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

- 1 Why do we mourn departing friends,
 Or shake at death's alarms?
 'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends,
 To call them to his arms.
- 2 Are we not tending upward, too,
 As fast as time can move?
 Nor would we wish the hours more slow,
 To keep us from our love.
- 3 Why should we tremble to convey
 Their bodies to the tomb?
 There the dear flesh of Jesus lay,
 And scattered all the gloom.
- 4 The graves of all the saints he blessed,
 And softened every bed;
 Where should the dying members rest,
 But with the dying Head?

- 5 Thence he arose, ascending high,
 And showed our feet the way;
 Up to the Lord we, too, shall fly
 At the great rising day.

 How kind their slumbers are!
 From suffering and from sin released,

 The labors of their mortal life
 End in a large reward."

1. Go to the grave in all thy glorious prime! In full activity of zeal and power;
A Christian can not die before his time: The Lord's appointment is the servant's hour.

644

JAMES MONTGOMERY. 1771-1854.

- 1 Go to the grave in all thy glorious prime!
In full activity of zeal and power;
A Christian can not die before his time:
The Lord's appointment is the servant's hour.
- 2 Go to the grave; at noon from labor cease;
Rest on thy sheaves, thy harvest-task is done;
Come from the heat of battle, and in peace,
Soldier! go home; with thee the fight is won.
- 3 Go to the grave, for there thy Saviour lay
In death's embraces, ere he rose on high;
And all the ransomed, by that narrow way,
Pass to eternal life beyond the sky.
- 4 Go to the grave! no, take thy seat above!
Be thy pure spirit present with the Lord,
Where thou for faith and hope hast perfect love,
And open vision for the written word. Amen.

 Perchance thy weak spirit in doubt lingered long;
 But the sunshine of heaven beamed bright on thy waking,

Master shall surprise With lamp untrimmed, unburning, and with slumber in his eyes.

653

GERARD MOULTRIE. 1867.

1 Behold the Bridegroom cometh in the middle of the night,
And blest is he whose loins are girt, whose lamp is burning bright;
But woe to that dull servant whom the Master shall surprise
With lamp untrimmed, unburning, and with slumber in his eyes.

2 That day, the day of fear, shall come; my soul, slack not thy toil,
But light thy lamp, and feed it well, and make it bright with oil;
Thou knowest not how soon may sound the cry at eventide,
"Behold, the Bridegroom comes! Arise! go forth to meet the Bride."

3 Beware, my soul! take thou good heed, lest thou in slumber lie,
And, like the five, remain without, and knock and vainly cry;
But watch, and bear thy lamp undimmed, and Christ shall gird thee on
His own bright wedding-robe of light,—the glory of the Son.

L. LAURENTI. 1660-1722.
Tr. by JANE BORTHWICK. 1854.

- 1 Rejoice, rejoice, believers!
And let your lights appear;
The shades of eve are thickening,
And darker night is near;
The Bridegroom is arising,
And soon he will draw nigh;
Up! pray and watch and wrestle!
At midnight comes the cry.
- 2 O wise and holy virgins,
Now raise your voices higher,
Till in your jubilations
Ye meet the angel choir.

- The marriage-feast is waiting,
The gates wide open stand;
Up, up, ye heirs of glory!
The Bridegroom is at hand.
- 3 Our hope and expectation,
O Jesus, now appear;
Arise, thou Sun so longed for,
O'er this benighted sphere!
With hearts and hands uplifted,
We plead, O Lord, to see
The day of earth's redemption,
And ever be with thee.

- 1 Lo! what a glorious sight appears
To our believing eyes!
The earth and seas are passed away,
And the old rolling skies.
- 2 From the third heaven, where God resides—
That holy, happy place,—
The New Jerusalem comes down,
Adorned with shining grace.
- 3 Attending angels shout for joy,
And the bright armies sing,—

- “Mortals! behold the sacred seat
Of your descending King.
- 4 “His own soft hand shall wipe the tears
From every weeping eye;
And pains and groans and griefs and fears,
And death itself shall die!”
- 5 How long, dear Saviour, O how long
Shall this bright hour delay?
Fly swifter round, ye wheels of time,
And bring the welcome day.

- 1 O'er the distant mountains breaking,
Comes the reddening dawn of day ;
Rise, my soul, from sleep awakening,
Rise, and sing and watch and pray ;
'Tis thy Saviour,
On his bright returning way.
- 2 Nearer is my soul's salvation,
Spent the night, the day at hand,
Keep me in my lowly station,
Watching for thee till I stand,
O my Saviour,
In thy bright and promised land !
- 3 With my lamp well trimmed and burning,
Swift to hear and slow to roam,
Watching for thy glad returning,
To restore me to my home ;
Come, my Saviour !
O my Saviour, quickly come !

1 Watchman! tell us of the night,
 What its signs of promise are.
 Traveler! o'er yon mountain's height,
 See that glory-beaming star.
 Watchman! does its beauteous ray
 Aught of hope or joy foretell?
 Traveler! yes; it brings the day,
 Promised day of Israel.

2 Watchman! tell us of the night;
 Higher yet that star ascends.
 Traveler! blessedness and light,
 Peace and truth, its course portends.

Watchman! will its beams alone
 Gild the spot that gave them birth?
 Traveler! ages are its own;
 See, it bursts o'er all the earth.

3 Watchman! tell us of the night,
 For the morning seems to dawn,
 Traveler! darkness takes its flight;
 Doubt and terror are withdrawn.
 Watchman! let thy wanderings cease,
 Hie thee to thy quiet home.
 Traveler! lo! the Prince of peace,
 Lo! the Son of God is come.

JUDGMENT HYMN. P. M.

MARTIN LUTHER. 1483-1540.

1. { Great God, what do I see and hear! The end of things cre-a - ted! }
The Judge of all men doth appear, On clouds of glo - ry seated: } The trumpet sounds; the graves restore The dead which they contained before; Pre-pare, my soul, to meet him.

660 B. RINGWALDT. 1583, and W. B. COLLYER. 1812.

- 1 Great God, what do I see and hear!
The end of things created!
The Judge of all men doth appear,
On clouds of glory seated:
The trumpet sounds; the graves restore
The dead which they contained before;
Prepare, my soul, to meet him.
- 2 The dead in Christ shall first arise
At the last trumpet's sounding,—
Caught up to meet him in the skies,
With joy their Lord surrounding:
No gloomy fears their souls dismay,
His presence sheds eternal day
On those prepared to meet him.

- 3 But sinners, filled with guilty fears,
Behold his wrath prevailing;
For they shall rise, and find their tears
And sighs are unavailing:
The day of grace is past and gone;
Trembling they stand before the throne,
All unprepared to meet him.
- 4 Great God, what do I see and hear!
The end of things created!
The Judge of all men doth appear,
On clouds of glory seated:
Low at his cross I view the day
When heaven and earth shall pass away,
And thus prepare to meet him.

Th' appointed hour makes haste,
When I must stand before my Judge,
And pass the solemn test.
- 2 Thou lovely Chief of all my joys,
Thou Sovereign of my heart,
How could I bear to hear thy voice
Pronounce the sound, "Depart!"

- 3 Jesus, I throw my arms around
And hang upon thy breast;
Without a gracious smile from thee,
My spirit can not rest.
- 4 O tell me that my worthless name
Is graven on thy hands!
Show me some promise in thy book,
Where my salvation stands!

1. When thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come To take thy ransomed people home, Shall I a-

662 S. SHIRLEY, COUNTESS OF HUNTINGTON. 1772.

1 When thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come
To take thy ransomed people home,
Shall I among them stand?
Shall such a worthless worm as I,
Who sometimes am afraid to die,
Be found at thy right hand?

2 I love to meet among them now,
Before thy gracious feet to bow,
Though vilest of them all;
But—can I bear the piercing thought?—
What if my name should be left out,
When thou for them shalt call?

3 Prevent, prevent it by thy grace;
Be thou, dear Lord, my hiding-place,
In this, th' accepted day;
Thy pardoning voice, O let me hear,
To still my unbelieving fear,
Nor let me fall, I pray.

4 Among thy saints let me be found,
Whene'er the archangel's trump shall sound,
To see thy smiling face;
Then loudest of the throng I'll sing,
While heaven's resounding mansions ring
With shouts of sovereign grace.

663

JOHN NEWTON. 1779.

1 Day of judgment, day of wonders,—
Hark! the trumpet's awful sound,
Louder than a thousand thunders,
Shakes the vast creation round:
How the summons
Will the sinner's heart confound!

2 See the Judge, our nature wearing,
Clothed in majesty divine;
You who long for his appearing
Then shall say, "This God is mine."
Gracious Saviour,
Own me in that day for thine.

3 At his call the dead awaken,
Rise to life from earth and sea;
All the powers of nature, shaken
By his looks, prepare to flee:
Careless sinner,
What will then become of thee?

4 But to those who have confessed,
Loved, and served the Lord below,
He will say, "Come near, ye blessed;
See the kingdom I bestow:
You forever
Shall my love and glory know."

CATHERINE H. WATERMAN. 1848.

1 Come unto me, when shadows darkly gather,
When the sad heart is weary and distressed,
Seeking for comfort from your heavenly Father,
Come unto me, and I will give you rest.
2 Large are the mansions in thy Father's dwelling,
Glad are the homes that sorrows never dim;

Sweet are the harps in holy music swelling,
Soft are the tones which raise the heavenly hymn.

3 There, like an Eden blossoming in gladness,
Bloom the fair flowers the earth too
rudely pressed;
Come unto me, all ye who droop in sadness,
Come unto me, and I will give you rest.

WE SHALL MEET. 8s, 6s, 7s.

HUBERT F. MAIN. by per.

679

JOHN ATKINSON.

- 1 We shall meet beyond the river,
By and by, by and by;
And the darkness shall be over,
By and by, by and by;
With the toilsome journey done,
And the glorious battle won,
We shall shine forth as the sun,
By and by, by and by.
- 2 We shall strike the harps of glory,
By and by, by and by;
We shall sing redemption's story,
By and by, by and by;

- And the strains for evermore
Shall resound in sweetness o'er
Yonder everlasting shore,
By and by, by and by.
- 3 We shall see and be like Jesus,
By and by, by and by;
Who a crown of life will give us,
By and by, by and by;
And the angels who fulfill
All the mandates of his will Shall attend and love us still,
By and by, by and by.

1. Upward where the stars are burning, Silent, silent in their turning, Round the never-changing pole;

Upward where the sky is brightest, Upward where the blue is lightest, Lift I now my longing soul.

HORATIUS BONAR. 1866.

1 Upward where the stars are burning,
Silent, silent in their turning,
Round the never-changing pole;
Upward where the sky is brightest,
Upward where the blue is lightest,
Lift I now my longing soul.

2 Where the Lamb on high is seated,
By ten thousand voices greeted:
Lord of lords, and King of kings.

Son of man, they crown, they crown him;
Son of God, they own, they own him;
With his name the palace rings.

3 Blessing, honor, without measure,
Heavenly riches, earthly treasure,
Lay we at his blessed feet.

Poor the praise that now we render,
Loud shall be our voices yonder,
When before his throne we meet.

682

LATIN HYMN. 8TH CENT.
WILLIAMS AND BODEN'S COL. 1801.

1 Jerusalem, my happy home,
Name ever dear to me!
When shall my labors have an end,
In joy and peace, in thee?

2 O when, thou city of my God,
Shall I thy courts ascend,
Where congregations ne'er break up,
And Sabbaths have no end?

3 There happier bowers than Eden's bloom,
Nor sin nor sorrow know;
Blest seats, through rude and stormy scenes
I onward press to you.

4 Jerusalem, my glorious home,
My soul still pants for thee;
Then shall my labors have an end
When I thy joys shall see.

684

ISAAC WATTS. 1707.

1 There is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Eternal day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.

2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-fading flowers:
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
That heavenly land from ours.

3 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood,
Stand dressed in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan rolled between.

4 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,—
Not Jordan's stream nor death's cold flood
Should fright us from the shore.

1 Daily, daily sing the praises
 Of the city God hath made;
 In the beauteous fields of Eden
 Its foundation-stones are laid.
 From the throne a river issues,
 Clear as crystal, passing bright,
 And it traverses the city
 Like a sudden beam of light.

2 There the wind is sweetly fragrant,
 And is laden with the song
 Of the seraphs and the elders,
 And the great redeemed throng.
 O I would my ears were open
 Here to catch that happy strain!
 O I would my eyes some vision
 Of that Eden could attain!

 From sorrow, temptation and care,
 From trials without and within;

Flow around this happy land;
Kept by him, no foes annoy;
Peace and freedom we enjoy.

May we cheerfully obey;
Never feel oppression's rod;
Ever own and worship God.

Praises to the King of kings;
Let us join the choral song,
And the grateful notes prolong.

1 Praise to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days;
Bounteous source of every joy,
Let thy praise our tongues employ.

2 Flocks that whiten all the plain,
Yellow sheaves of ripened grain;
Clouds that drop their fattening dews,
Suns that temperate warmth diffuse.

3 All that spring with bounteous hand
Scatters o'er the smiling land;
All that liberal autumn pours
From her rich, o'erflowing stores,—

4 Lord, for these our souls shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise;
And when every blessing's flow,
Love thee for thyself alone.

1 We plow the fields, and scatter
The good seed on the land,
But it is fed and watered
By God's almighty hand;
He sends the snow in winter,
The warmth to swell the grain,
The breezes and the sunshine,
And soft, refreshing rain.

REF.—All good gifts around us
Are sent from heaven above;
Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord,
For all his love.

2 He only is the Maker
Of all things near and far;

He paints the wayside flower,
He lights the evening star;
The winds and waves obey him,
By him the birds are fed;
Much more to us, his children,
He gives our daily bread.

3 We thank thee, then, O Father,
For all things bright and good,
The seed-time and the harvest,
Our life, our health, our food:
Accept the gifts we offer,
For all thy love imparts,
And, what thou most desirest,
Our humble, thankful hearts.

690

HENRY ALFORD. 1844.

1 Come, ye thankful people, come,
 Raise the song of harvest-home!
 All is safely gathered in,
 Ere the winter storms begin:
 God, our Maker, doth provide
 For our wants to be supplied:
 Come to God's own temple, come,
 Raise the song of harvest-home.

2 We ourselves are God's own field
 Fruit unto his praise to yield;
 Wheat and tares together sown
 Unto joy or sorrow grown;

First the blade, and then the ear,
 Then the full corn shall appear;
 Lord of harvest! grant that we
 Wholesome grain and pure may be.

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
 And shall take his harvest home;
 From his field shall purge away
 All that doth offend that day;
 Give his angels charge at last
 In the fire the tares to cast;
 But the fruitful ears to store
 In his garner evermore.

The future,—all to us unknown,—
We to thy guardian care commit,

By the patience of hope and the labor of love.

2 Our life is a dream; our time, as a stream,

- 1 The Lord is my shepherd; || I shall not want.
- 2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; || he leadeth me beside the still waters.
- 3 He restoreth my soul; || he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
- 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will not fear evil; || for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
- 5 Thou preparest a table before me, || in the presence of mine enemies.
- 6 Thou anoint my head with oil; || my cup runneth over.
- 7 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me || all the days of my life.
- 8 And I will dwell in the house || of the Lord for ever.

No. 86. FROM THE RECESSES OF A LOWLY SPIRIT.

J. E. GOULD.

753

SIR JOHN BOWRING.

- 1 From the recesses of a lowly spirit, our humble prayer ascends, · O | Father | hear it ; ||
Borne on the trembling wings · of | fear and | meekness, || for · · | give its | weak - ness.
- 2 We know, we feel, how mean and how unworthy the lowly sac · rifice we | pour be - | fore thee. ||
What can we offer thee · O | thou most | holy, || but · · | sin and | folly ?
- 3 We see thy hand, it leads us, it supports us ; we hear thy voice, it coun · sels | and it | courts us ; ||
And then we turn away · yet | still thy | kindness || for · · | gives our | blindness.
- 4 Who can resist thy gentle call, appealing to every generous thought · and | grateful | feeling ? ||
O, who can hear the ac · cents | of thy | mercy, || and · · | never | love thee ?
- 5 Kind Benefactor, plant within this bosom · the | seeds of | holiness || and let them blossom
In fragrance, and in beau · ty | bright and | vernal, || and · · | spring e - | ternal.
- 6 Then place them in those everlasting gardens, where angels walk, and se · raphs | are the | wardens ; ||
Where every flower, brought safe · through | death's dark | portal, || be · · | comes im - | mortal.

- 2 My soul thirsteth for God · for the | living | God; || when · shall I | come · and ap- | pear be · fore | God?
- 3 My tears have been my meat · | day and | night, || while they continually say · unto me, | Where is | now thy | God?

- 5 With the voice · of | joy and | praise, || with a mul · titude | keeping | holy | day.

- 2 Behold thou hast made my days as a span long, and mine age is even as no · thing in re- | spect of | thee; || and verily every man living is al · to- | gether | vani- | ty.

Because Thy loving-kindness is better than life, my lips shall praise Thee.

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive
our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name.

The Lord bless thee, and keep thee :
The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee :

The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

(Numbers VI. 24-26.)

Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant,

Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

(Hebrews XIII 20-21.)
